TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Folken drove to Devil's Elbow park near the Sea Lion caves last Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Stankey. They saw much debris on the beaches but said the beach combers are doing a lot toward clearing it.

Mrs. Chris Larsen has been well feted this week in observance of her birthday. Sunday, she and Mr. Larsen were dinner guests of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hyde and family at the Country Kitchen at Cedar Hills. Monday, Mr. Larsen took her on a drive to Arch Cape and after their return home that evening, neighbor ladies came in for cake and coffee. The beautifully decorated cake was made by Mrs. Sallie Brown. Included in the group were Mrs. Pearle Adams, Mrs. C. New, Mrs. F. McCabe, Mrs. John Andrews, Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Gertrude Hackasma and Mrs. Earl Trombly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hazen took advantage of the good weather last week end for a visit with their son, Lester Hazen, and his family at Reedsport. Their son, who is now vice-principal of the Reedsport high school had news for them that he will advance to principal April 1. While at Reedsport, their son took

New Residents Buy OA House

RIVERVIEW — Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pendergrass of Modesto, California have bought on OA house across from the Mill Market and moved there last week. Mr. Pendergrass is a retired railroad man.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hudson Sunday. Mrs. Maude Wells and Mrs. Grover Botkin and children spent the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wells at Eugene.

Mrs. Grace Normand, who lives at the Newberg Care home, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Normand Monday to Friday of last week.

Sunday night visitors at the John Normand home were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lindsley and children of Springfield.

97459.

Mrs. J. E. Tapp of North Plains and her brother-in-law, Earl Tapp of Salt Lake City were in Vernonia Thursday of last week. Earl Tapp had lived here many years ago when the mill was in its heyday of operation. Mrs. Tapp had received news that morning of the arrival of her thirteenth grandchild, a little girl who arrived that morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tapp of Seattle. This is their third daughter. In November, grandchild number 12, also a girl had arrived at the home of their daughter Mary and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Scott McDonald of Lakeview. She has been named Judy Lynn and joined a sister and two brothers.

Mrs. Walter Kent of Newberg spent last week end here as the house guest of Mrs. Bertie Bassett. She was able to see many of her former neighbors here due to the good weather. Also, she and Mrs. Bassett attended the PTA Revue Friday evening and she attended services at the EUB church Sunday morning.

Last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Folken and George Newton drove to Oysterville, Washington near Long Beach. They stated that much storm debris still litters the beaches.

Cread Morgan, manager of Deans Market, is laid up this week with an injured ankle which resulted from a cycle accident. While he is off work, Bud Evans is acting as store manager. He had been manager of the Deans Market at St. Helens which has now been bought out by Safeway. After he leaves here, Deans is sending him to the Eugene area.

Please advise us of your new address if you are planning to move.

Let's Get Acquainted!

Do You Know This Man?

Born August 17, 1900 at Olla, Louisiana.

Came to Vernonia in March of 1925. Married January 11, 1927 at Vancouver, Washington.

Has seven children, a number of grandchildren.

Worked for the Oregon-American Lumber company and successors. Left the mill one month before it closed and went elsewhere to work, but later returned here. He once was manager for the Vernonia baseball team.

He is an avid and successful fisherman.

One might not believe it but part of his time is spent "parking." (Information supplied by J. W. Nichols) Answer to Feb. 25 quiz: John H. Townsend.

Gardeners seem to come in three types—the grower, the mower, and the show-er.
