QUEEN FOR A DAY Sunset Lanes

MARGARET THOMPSON

Bowler Named Queen for Day

Margaret Thompson won the Queen for a Day honors at Sunset Lanes, Beaverton last Friday while she and three other Vernonia bowlers were there. Those with her were Gladys Sharar, Florenz Huff and Janet Fields.

In the contest, five bowlers are chosen for a bowl-off. Margaret was drawn to compete with four bowlers from other places and she rolled the most pins.

She was given a corsage of carnations and roses, tickets for dinners for two at Raleigh Hills Corral, a lube job and car wash, a hair cut, a credit for dry cleaning, a cake from Peterson's Cedar Hills bakery and free bowling for a week.

Irony of the situation is that she became ill with Asian flu the following day and has been unable to take advantage of the bowling. The dry cleaning also had a one week limit.

Crafts Society Seats Officers

The Vernonia Society of Arts and Crafts installed officers for the new term at their March 1 meeting with Mrs. T. M. Hobart, senior board member, as installing officer. The feature of the evening was the impressive candlelight ceremony which followed the administering of the oath of office.

Officers for the new term are Mrs. Wilbur Wilson, president; Mrs. Robert Curl, first vice-president; Mrs. William Pringle, second vice-president; Mrs. Harry Sandon, secretary; Mrs. Neil Zimmerman, treasurer; and Mrs. Ralph Valpiani, member of board of directors.

Standing committees were appointed as follows: Art, Mrs. Carson Strong, Mrs. William Heath, Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson; crafts, Mrs. William Pringle, Mrs. Ed Castle, Mrs. Ralph Sturdevant, Mrs. Raymond Peterson; needlework, Mrs. Sam Murray, Mrs. Sam Hearing Sr., Mrs. Harry Sandon; telephone, Mrs. Dan Lawler; membership, Mrs. Ralph Valpiani and by-laws, Mrs. T. M. Hobart.

Special committee chairmen appointed were summer art class, Mrs. William Heath and hanging baskets, Mrs. T. M. Hobart.

During the business meeting Mrs. William Pringle announced a meeting to be held Wednesday, March 10 to present tin craft. Mrs. Sam Murray stated that beginners knitting classes would be held the three Fridays in March as follows: March 5 at 2:00 p.m.; March 12 and 19 at 7:30 p.m. All classes are held at the West Oregon meeting room. Non-members may participate in classes for a fee of fifty cents at each meeting.

Recommendations for changes in the by-laws, including reduction of dues, were given the second reading and adopted by unanimous vote. An invitation was extended to all who are interested in the work of the society to join in membership.

Following adjournment, refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held April 5.

MISS LEANNE LARSON

Engagement Announced For Svenson Senior

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon F. Larson of Svenson have announced the engagement of their daughter, Leanne Avis, to Gordon E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin L. Smith of Seaside.

Miss Larson is a senior at Knappa Svenson high school and was queen of the homecoming last week at her school. Her fiancé is attending Lower Columbia Junior College in Longview, Washington.

Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Smith were former residents of Vernonia.

No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Larson will attend college in Portland next year and Mr. Smith will continue his schooling, majoring in pre-law.

Shower Honors Recent Bride

Mrs. Jon Carter was honor guest last Saturday afternoon at a linen shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bergerson on Keasey route with Miss Ann Bergerson and Miss Martha Mangat acting as hostesses.

The opening and displaying of the many lovely gifts highlighted an afternoon of visiting. A feature of the refreshments served was a beautifully decorated bride's cake which had been made by Mrs. Howard Carter, mother-in-law of the honor guest.

Included in those present, in addition to those named above, were Mrs. DeeVeere Hershey, Mrs. Mike Mullins of Forest Grove, Mrs. Mary Gaffney, Mary Lou, Claudia and Kathy Carter, Joyce Chandler, Geri Brady, Jeannie Mason and Betty Jo Aldrich. A number who were unable to attend sent gifts.

Mrs. Jon Carter is the former Carole Chandler. Her wedding was an event of February 19 in Portland.

Lindsley-Hugley Vows Given In Candlelight Church Rites

In an impressive candlelight ceremony last Friday evening at 8:30 at the First Christian church, Miss Ruth Ann Hugley, daughter of Mrs. Burl Hugley of Seal Rock, became the bride of Jack Ray Lindsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Lindsley of Timber route, Vernonia.

Reverend Robert Sargent, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and also acted as soloist to sing "Walk Hand in Hand" before the rites. Miss Christine King was organist.

Baskets of white gladioli and laurel and candelabra with white tapers formed the background for the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Dean Rector of Lafayette, wore a ballerina length gown of candlelight satin with scoop neckline. Her shoulder-length veil of white net fell from a pearl tiara. She wore a gold locket, a gift from her late father, and carried a handkerchief trimmed in blue which was given her by her grandmother. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with white roses which formed her going-away corsage.

Her maid of honor, Miss Jeannie Mason, wore a moss green dress with brief tulle veil which fell from a white satin circlet. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Best man was Ted Bodenhamer and ushers were Gary Smith and Verne Smith. Candlelighters were Sandra Lindsley, sister of the groom, and Sally Hytrek.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social room at which the four-tiered cake, iced in white and decorated with pink roses, was served by Mrs. Dean Rector, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Melvin Sheppard served coffee and Mrs. Kenneth Heegle of Tillamook served punch. Miss Kathy Minger had charge of the guest book and Miss Kathy Barker cared for the gifts. The reception room was decorated in the green and white color scheme accented by white bells and candlelight.

From the reception, the couple left for a week end honeymoon and for travel the bride wore a blue wool suit with black lace scarf.

Mr. Lindsley was a 1960 graduate of Vernonia high school after which he served in the US navy from which he was discharged in November.

Mrs. Lindsley graduated with the class of 1964 and has since taken a course at the Medical Secretarial school at Beaverton.

The couple is now residing on Timber route.
