TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Mrs. John Serafin was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Friday for treatment following a severe attack of asthma. She had hoped to return home Monday but suffered another attack so was to stay until her condition improved.
Car wash, VHS golf team, Sat., Mar 20, 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., back of high school. Cars $1.00, white side-walls, 25c extra.
Mrs. Jean Myer brought her son Steven home from the hospital Thursday and he returned to school Friday with his arm in a cast and many bruises to show for the accident last week when a horse fell on him. His birthday was observed Sunday with a party at which guests were Mary Brunzman, Chris Hanson, Sherri Nightwine, Susan Howard, Joyce Knowlton, Zenda Ellis, Gary Davis, Curtis Hickman, Mike Busch, Mat Koch, Doug Koski, Rod Aldrich and Johnny Nystrom. Also present were Johnny's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Nystrom of Birkenfeld and Mr. and Mrs. Donn Gephart who are neighbors of the Myers.

Mrs. Carl Davis returned home Sunday from Forest Grove where she had been since Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fleskes and family in order to be near her sister, Mrs. Leora Henderson who had major surgery at the Forest Grove hospital Friday morning. Mrs. Henderson is making good recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lange drove to Forest Grove Sunday to call on Mrs. Henderson and they brought Mrs. Davis home with them.
A letter from Mrs. Margaret Hambleton, who moved from Vernonia to Forest Grove recently, says she spent the week of her birthday in Spokane with her sister who had a dinner in honor of the occasion. Relatives and friends of the two ladies were guests. Mrs. Hambleton appreciated the cards sent her by friends here, which she found waiting when she returned to Forest Grove.

Mrs. Lois Hughes from Peshastin, Washington has been a house guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson, for the past two weeks. She also has visited with her niece, Mrs. Irene Meyer and nephew, Jack Bergerson and their families and with cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Cass Bergerson. Sunday, the Cass Bergersons, Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson and Mrs. Hughes were dinner guests of Mrs. Lottie Lintner at Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tapp of Cornelius also were there. Mrs. Hughes is spending some time with the Tapps and Mrs. Lintner this week.
Mrs. Wm. Rundle entered Providence hospital Monday for tests and treatment.
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Biden and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Goodrich of Forest Grove were among the many out-of-towners here Saturday for the smorgasbord.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Elliott and Mrs. Celeste Poetter were at Junction City Monday to attend funeral services for Lum Moore, a former Vernonia resident, who passed away there last Saturday.
O. T. Bateman returned home Wednesday from Covington, Oklahoma where he had gone March 6 because of the illness of his mother, Mrs. Emma Bateman. She has improved considerably but before coming home he arranged for her to enter a nursing home in Enid, Oklahoma. His mother, who is 88, had previously been cared for by her sister who is 90.
