Portland Church Scene of Rites

In an impressive ceremony at the All Saints Episcopal church in Portland February 19, Miss Carole Chandler, daughter of Stanley Chandler, became the bride of Jon Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carter, all of Vernonia.

The double ring ceremony was read at 8:30 p.m. by the Reverend F. Orle Hoyer in the presence of family members and friends. Baskets of pink and white carnations at the altar set the scene for the rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length sheath of white satin and a short veil which was held in place by a seed pearl crown. She carried a single white orchid on a white prayer book.

Her maid of honor was Miss Martha Mangat who wore blue and her bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Joyce Chandler who wore red. Both carried nosegays of pink carnations. Best man was Louis Violette and ushers were Darwin Welch and Fred Skidmore.

Following the ceremony, the couple left for a week end honeymoon at Seaside after which they returned to Vernonia to establish residence at 942 Third avenue.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Vernonia high school and she is now attending Oregon Business College at Beaverton.

The groom, who graduated from Vernonia high school in 1963, is employed at Deans Market.

Grange Ladies Fete Birthdays of Three

JEWELL—Ladies from six granges sang happy birthday to Josie Wooden of Seaside who was 82 on March 11. It was a three-fold celebration as Anna Wink of the Jewell Grange and Josie both had birthdays March 11 and Blanche Pickering of Vernonia grange had her birthday March 10. There were 14 ladies who came from the Nehalem Valley, Jewell, Winema, Vernonia, Pacific and Necanicum granges.

There was a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Chet Bell in Seaside. Each of the three ladies was given a corsage and they received gifts. Also, birthday cakes and ice cream were served. Mrs. Edith Thomas from Jewell and Mrs. Koolen from Seaside took pictures of the party.

Rusty Tiedeman of Jewell was hurt in the woods Friday afternoon. He is home on crutches after having 35 stitches taken to sew up a cut on his right leg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas and Mrs. Anna Wink from the Nehalem Valley grange visited the Vernonia grange Saturday evening.

Rebekahs Date Future Events

Mt. Heart Rebekah lodge, at the meeting held last Thursday, March 11, set April 8 as the date for initiation of new members and Noble Grand Mathilde Bergerson called a practice for this evening, March 18 at 7:00 p.m. to prepare for it.

Mrs. Marie Elliott, secretary of the social committee, reported that a very good meeting had been held March 9 at the home of Mrs. Virginia Hogberg with Mrs. Mildred Jessee as co-hostess. There were 12 members and two visitors present. Plans were made for a progressive dinner March 31 which will start at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marie Shafer.

The next meeting of the committee will be April 13 at 1:30 p.m. at Mrs. Elliott's home.

The lodge voted financial assistance with the senior banquet which is sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary with the assistance of other organizations.

It was announced that the Odd Fellows have plans underway for the annual Boy Scout breakfast May 9 which is Mothers Day.

Following the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Norma Callister, Mrs. Zoe Salomonsen and Mrs. Jean Connors.

The next meeting will be March 25.

Past Chiefs Change Date for Meeting

Members of the Past Chiefs club are reminded that their meeting has been changed from tonight, March 18, to Tuesday, March 30 to avoid a conflict for several of the members. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Irma Chance.

Pythians Name Temple Mother

Mrs. Jean Ralston of Grants Pass, grand chief of Oregon Pythian Sisters, made her official visit to Vernonia Temple No. 61 Wednesday evening of last week. She was honor guest at a dinner at the IOOF hall preceding the meeting.

Mrs. Ralston was accompanied by Miss Lura Morgan of Bandon, grand guard for the Grand Temple of Oregon, Pythian Sisters. Also, additional guests at the dinner were four ladies from St. Helens who accompanied Mrs. Dane Brady of Warren. They were Mrs. Margaret Myers, past grand chief; Mrs. Mable Sheed

Study Club to Note Book Week

A tea at the Vernonia public library in recognition of National Book Week in April was discussed at the meeting of the Vernonia Study club March 4 at the home of Mrs. B. J. Horn. Further plans will be made by the library committee, Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Emil Messing.

The story of Michael Angelo and his famous works was presented to the club by Mrs. Harry Culbertson who gave a concise geological and historical picture of Italy through the centuries and its remarkable progress since World War II as a preface for the story of the great renaissance genius.

April 1, religions in Europe will be the topic for the program presented by Mrs. Gladys Worthington at the home of Mrs. Launee Cousins.

Mrs. Harry Ford of Forest Grove, a former member of the Vernonia Study club, was a guest at the March 4 meeting. She was a week end guest of her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Kamholz.

DeMolay Notes Founding Date

All DeMolay chapters in the United States and the world are this week observing the memory of Dad Land, founder of the organization in 1919.

It started with a group of nine high school boys. Today, nearly three million men have passed through the portals of DeMolay.

Many well-known leaders have said that they still practice the principals of the order, which were instilled in them when young men.

While there is no DeMolay chapter in Vernonia, a number of Vernonia high school boys belong to the chapter at Clatskanie.

er, most excellent chief of Ava Temple at St. Helens; Mrs. Beulah Hall and Mrs. Mary Watkins.

Additional guests at the meeting were a group from Friendship Temple at North Plains and included Mrs. Hazel Hollenbeck, past grand chief; Mrs. Bernice Mathieson, past grand guard; Mrs. Charleen Troutman and Mrs. Marion Foster.

After the meeting was opened and visiting guests were introduced, Most Excellent Chief Leona Haverland asked that Mrs. Marie Shafer be presented at the altar. She somewhat startled Mrs. Shafer by telling her the temple was glad she was absent at the previous meeting. She then went on to explain that her absence had given opportunity for the temple to elect her as temple mother to fill the vacancy created by the death of Mrs. Pearl Wilkerson who had held that honored position for many years. Mrs. Harry Culbertson, charter member of the temple, had the privilege of pinning an orchid corsage on Mrs. Shafer.

During the meeting, the charter was draped for a period of 30 days in memory of Mrs. Clara Lindsley who had almost attained 25 years of membership in the temple. During the ceremony, Mrs. Myers sang.

The grand chief gave a very interesting talk in which she especially emphasized the current building remodeling program at the Oregon-Washington Pythian home in Vancouver.

The temple set April 8 as the date for initiation of new members. Practice for it will be started at the next meeting, March 24.

An invitation was extended by the guests from Friendship Temple to attend their meeting April 2 at which the fiftieth anniversary of their temple will be observed.

Mrs. Ralston and Miss Morgan were overnight house guests of Mrs. Launee Cousins. They went on to Seaside Thursday for the grand chief's official visit there.
