

Student Takes European Tour

BIRKENFELD—J. J. Lonnquist, Eugene, son of Jepson Lonnquist, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lonnquist, Birkenfeld, took quite a trip this summer. He flew to London by jet and from there visited France, Holland, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden, England, Germany, Austria, Yugoslavia, Italy, Norway, Finland and Belgium. He was gone for almost three months. In Sweden he visited some of his grandfather's relatives. He hitchhiked throughout these countries and stayed mostly in youth hostels. He is now back in school at the University of Oregon.

It was learned recently that Pastor Evert Harshman's mother passed away in Idaho in September. The Harshmans went to Idaho for the funeral. Evert Harshman is now teaching one class at the Portland Christian high school and is also working at a service station in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Arby Mills were in Portland Friday. Sunday morning, they attended the EUB church in Vernonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Ramsey, Vicky and Paul, Jan Johnston, and Johnny Crawford went for a Sunday drive out to the dike land near Clatskanie, and also went to Jones beach. Saturday the Ramseys were in Portland and picked up their daughter Ann, at Cascade College, then did some shopping. They had planned to go to the PI, but their plans went awry. Mrs. Ramsey's folks, the Ira Hubers, left for their home in Wellman, Iowa a week ago last Tuesday after spending some time visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Baker went to Portland Sunday to visit with their son, Sammy Baker, and his wife Shirley. They also attended the Pacific International. Sunday evening, the four Bakers had dinner with Shirley's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Marsten in Lake Grove. Mrs. Edna Johnson and Mrs. Darrel Baker were in Vernonia Friday.

Anna Hanberg took her cousin, Agda Rognan to Portland Thursday and to make plans to return to her home in Seattle via bus. Mrs. Rognan spent most of the summer here. Before returning home Saturday, Anna visited relatives in Gresham, and visited a friend in St. Johns. Mrs. Al Cavanaugh and Mrs. Hugh Cox accompanied Anna to Clatskanie Monday.

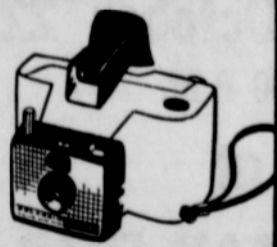

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Beach were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beach. On Friday, Lloyd Beach was in Astoria on business and Minnie Beach accompanied Myrtle Mathews to Forest Grove on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Boone Johnston, Alan, Jan, and Steve were in Portland Saturday to attend the PI.
