TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Allen York arrived home late last week to spend the holidays with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Adams. He is stationed at a Montana air force base. A potluck dinner at the EUB church Sunday noon gave friends an opportunity to visit with Allen and Paul and Robert Weidman, all of whom were home together for the first time in several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Kit Kennedy, former residents of the Natal area who now live in Missouri, send news that she is just recovering from a serious illness. They are very happy with their new location but state that they do miss Vernonia and their many friends here.

Mr. Albert Tandy is still in Tuality hospital, Hillsboro, and has not responded to treatment so far. She has been in traction due to muscle spasms in her back. New treatment was to be used this week, but she will be spending Christmas in the hospital.

Jack Marshall of Seattle was in Vernonia Sunday, the second anniversary of the death of his mother, Mrs. Ina Marshall. He attended services at the EUB church.

Robert Weidman arrived home Friday of last week. He has just returned to the states from Germany and received his discharge from the air force. His brother Paul arrived home from Viet Nam the previous week end and he, too, has his discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Brunzman receive an interesting paper this week from England which is a special supplement for the Lord Mayor's show. Sir Lionel Denny who has recently been elected Lord Mayor is honored in the issue. The Dennys and Brunsmans became acquainted in 1960 when they were world travelers on the same ship and they learned, through conversation, that the two men had served in the same area in Europe during World War I at the same time.

Mrs. Carl Davis had visits Saturday from her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riley of Portland, and her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Davis of Beaverton.

Christmas letters to friends here from Rev. and Mrs. Paul Sisler of Lincoln, Nebraska who formerly resided here when he was pastor of the local EUB church, tell of their trip last summer to the Holy Land and Europe. Their son Phil and his wife now live in Flagstaff, Arizona.

Janie Harkson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harkson, observed her fifth birthday last Saturday with a party at which guests were Lea Ann Proehl, Lori Tipton and Karl Garner. Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Alexander last Saturday were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander of Salem, and her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson from Cedar Hills, all of whom came for the wedding that afternoon of the Alexander's daughter, Miss Suzie Alexander. E. V. (Lige) Robertson, who recently was hospitalized for treatment, is now at home and will be making weekly trips to Portland for his treatments.
