TOPICS OF THE TOWN

This past week end the Forest Grove Community hospital had what almost amounted to a Vernonia ward. Patients occupying beds were Ben Fowler who was taken in with pneumonia, Ray Peterson who had the same virus infection and Harry Emmons who was under going tests to determine cause of a digestive disorder. Mr. Emmons came home Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. David Linn arrived late Thursday night from Brandegee, Connecticut for a short visit with his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn prior to his departure for a one year tour of duty in the Pacific. His sub, the U. S. S. Benjamin Franklin will be based at Pearl Harbor and will be operating in the Guam and Hawaii areas. While he is away, his wife will stay with her folks at Seaside.

MRS. B. J. Horn, center, district deputy president, installed officers January 13 for Mt. Heart Rebekah Lodge. At left is Mrs. E. A. Elliott who was installed as noble grand and at right of picture, Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson, outgoing noble grand.

Mrs. Elliott Installed By Mt. Heart Rebekah Lodge

Mrs. E. A. Elliott was installed Thursday evening as noble grand for Mt. Heart Rebekah lodge in an impressive ceremony carried out by District Deputy President Reatha Horn and her staff of deputy officers. Mrs. Elliott succeeds Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson.

Other elective officers seated with Mrs. Elliott were as follows: Vice grand, Mrs. Loran E. Atkins; recording secretary, Mrs. Harry Sandon; financial secretary, Mrs. Carl Davis and treasurer, Mrs. Harry Emmons.

Appointive officers taking positions were Mrs. Jean Connors, warden; Mrs. E. E. Garner, conductor; Mrs. Irma Chance, chaplain; Mrs. Marie Shafer, color bearer; Mrs. Lloyd Callister, musician; Mrs. Henry Anderegg and Mrs. Bernard Killingberg, right and left supporters to the noble grand; Mrs. Marie Atkins and Mrs. Lee Jessee, right and left supporters to the vice-grand; Mrs. Albert Schalock, inside guardian; Mrs. O. Bernardi, outside guardian; Mrs. Frank Lentz, Mrs. Lee Akers, Mrs. Ed Salomonsen and Mrs. Thomas Hall, courtesy officers.

Past Noble Grands who served as deputy officers to assist Mrs. Horn with the installation were Mrs. Merle Cline, marshal; Mrs. Evelyn Heath, warden; Mrs. Florence Messing, musician; Mrs. Grace Currie, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Lange, secretary; Mrs. Salomonsen and Mrs. Schalock, inside and outside guardians and Mrs. Charles Minger, chaplain.

Following the installation, the business meeting was conducted by the newly installed noble grand. The session had been opened prior to the installation by the outgoing noble grand, Mathilde Bergerson and her officers.

Mrs. Cline was appointed as drill captain for 1966 and Mrs. Walter Linn was elected as trustee.

Mrs. Chance, retiring president of the social committee, reported that that group had met Tuesday evening of last week following installation practice and had elected 1966 officers, also. Mrs. Ralph Markham was named as president, Mrs. Marie Atkins as vice-president and Mrs. Salomonsen, secretary. The next meeting of the group will be February 1 in the dining room at the IOOF hall with Mrs. Jessee and Mrs. Garner as hostesses.

Plans were made for serving refreshments for the Odd Fellows Tuesday evening of next week when they have installation of officers. The Odd Fellows are also invited to join with the ladies for refreshments February 1.

Another project in the immediate future is the serving of the chamber of commerce dinner on Monday evening, January 24.

Under good of the order, Mrs. Bergerson was escorted to the center of the floor and an addendum presented in her honor. She was then presented with her past noble grand's pin by District Deputy President Reatha Horn and with a gift from her 1965 officers by Mrs. Irma Chance as an expression of their pleasure in working with her during her term.

The district deputy also presented seals to several members who had given their secret work correctly in recent weeks.

The evening concluded with the serving of refreshments in the dining room with Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Ralph Markham in charge. Mrs. Bergerson presented each of the officers who served with her during 1965 a ceramic plate bearing the Rebekah emblem. District Deputy Reatha Horn gave gifts to all deputy officers who had assisted her with the installation and many congratulatory gifts were received by the incoming and outgoing noble grands.

The next meeting of the lodge will be Thursday, January 27 at 8 p.m.

Aaker Service Held Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Carol Lorraine Aaker, 47-year-old resident of Mist route, Vernonia, were conducted Saturday, January 15 at 1 p.m. at the Fuiten-Friesen Mortuary Chapel, Vernonia.

The Rev. William C. Armstrong, pastor of the Vernonia Assembly of God church officiated at the services with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frank singing as a duet and Mrs. Lloyd Thomas, organist. Concluding rites and interment were at the Vernonia Memorial cemetery with Bert Davis, Lawrence Borgland, George Wells, Clayton Hendricks, Elgus Frank and Carol Clason serving as casket bearers.

Mrs. Aaker passed away at the family home at Riverview January 11 following an extended illness. She was born in Portland December 25, 1918, the daughter of Percy E. and Fannie Brown Symes. She spent her early life in Portland and Seattle and later worked for several years at Orting, Washington, returning then to Portland in 1958. For the past year and a half she made her home at Vernonia.

Surviving is her husband, Frederick O. Aaker of Vernonia to whom she was united in marriage at Vancouver, Washington October 15, 1963.

Also surviving is her mother, Mrs. Fannie Lehman, Timber route, Vernonia; a daughter, Mrs. David (Velma) Welcome, Carbonado, Washington; three brothers, Donald, Robert and Marvin, and a sister, Doris Symes, all of Portland.

Pattern Alterations Workshops Are Dated

All women who are interested in sewing are urged to come to the West Oregon building at 10:30 a.m. January 21 and 25 (Friday and Tuesday) for a workshop in pattern fitting and alteration.

The workshop is being conducted by Mrs. Margaret Allyn, county extension agent in home economics.

It is not necessary to be a member of an extension unit in order to take part in the workshop and it will be a long time before another one on this subject is held here. Those who attend are to bring a sack lunch and some sewing equipment.
