BIRKENFELD — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stuve were in Portland Saturday. The Birkenfeld reporter found them visiting in Montgomery Wards that day with Mr. Stuve's nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lunsden from Vancouver, Washington. The Stuves were surprised to discover the Lunsdens in the store, and were equally as surprised to find also the Birkenfeld reporter. The Stuves returned to Birkenfeld by way of Forest Grove that afternoon and visited with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender.

Yes, the Birkenfeld news reporter (Shirley Berg) went to Portland this past week end. She went into the big city on Friday night to attend the Chapter 6 Chin-Up Club meeting in the Friendship Room at the Portland Federal Savings Bank in Gateway. She returned to the country again on Saturday, after taking her car to the "doctor" (Riviera) for minor repair, and doing some shopping.

Visitors during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wanstrom were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Berg who brought along their movie projector and showed interesting movies, many of them taken in the valley; Axel Swanson of Multnomah, brother-in-law of Mrs. Wanstrom; Charles Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones and Marge. Over the week end, their daughter, Mrs. Ione Downs, was here from Portland. Sunday the Wanstroms and Ione drove to the coast and were in the area where the famed Peter Iredale boat is. They picked up driftwood on the beach. Mrs. Downs returned to Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Takama had dinner Sunday with the Charles Ramsey family. Mr. Takama brought the morning message at the Westport Community church and they then came by this way to see the Ramseys. Both Mr. and Mrs. Takama are students at Cascade College in Portland. They are originally from Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bellingham and family were in Astoria over the week end. Friday evening, George refereed for the Clatsop College basketball game. Saturday evening they attended the Astoria high school game with Mr. and Mrs. Ron Trenholm and family. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones returned from Vernonia Sunday after being there since before Christmas. They stayed at the home of her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ritz while they were on a trip to California.
