Wyatt Makes Nominations

According to information released by Representative Wendell Wyatt, Robert M Fuquay, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fuquay of Timber route is among the young men he has nominated for possible appointment to the U. S. Air Force Academy.

Nominations are made on the basis of scores obtained in competitive civil service qualifying exams. Nominees will further compete under the competitive exam system and final selection will be based on college board examination, academic record, and extra-curricular activities.

Fuquay is presently a freshman at Portland State College.
Also on the list released by Wyatt was the name of James R. Pickering, grandson of Mrs. Blanche Pickering, whom he nominated for Annapolis Naval Academy. The only other Columbia county man on the list was Alan T. Cave of St. Helens, nominated for the Air Force Academy.

Happy Cooks Given Table Setting Lesson

The Happy Cooks 4-H club met January 11 at Mrs. Ralph Higginbotham's home. The first year members made coconut cookies served them with candy and orange drink to everyone.
While the first year members made their cookies, the second year girls learned how to set the table for three different kinds of meals.
Bonnie Normand was a visitor.
