

Couple Attends Bureau Meeting

MIST—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grimsbo were in Rainier Tuesday evening of last week to attend a Farm Bureau meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Grimsbo were appointed as board directors. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Grimsbo attended a kick-off dinner at the Chuck Wagon in Rainier. Paul DeShazer of St. Helens is the president. There is a tentative plan to have a meeting place set up in Vernonia. Wednesday Mrs. Grimsbo accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Art Bellingham to Portland. Mrs. Bellingham and Mrs. Grimsbo are local Heart fund chairmen and attended the American Heart Association dinner at the Heathman hotel. Later they were at the University of Oregon medical school. Mr. and Mrs. Grimsbo and children were in Astoria Sunday on Shorthorn business. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Garlock, DeLake and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reddick, Clatskanie, visited at the Ray Garlock home Saturday. Mrs. Howard Thompson returned to her home in Clatskanie Friday afternoon after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Norman Hansen and family. Mrs. Thompson is doing very nicely, recuperating from her accident in September and has every hope of being on her feet before too long. Mrs. Lloyd Garlock called on the John Crawfords one day during the week.

Tuesday guests at the Charles Hansen home were Mr. and Mrs. Abner Wiisanen of Quincy. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Walter Root and Clyde and Dale Sanders of Portland and Miss Michele Weidlinger, Sherwood, visited at the Hansen home.

World Day of Prayer Planning Meet Held

A planning meeting for the World Day of Prayer was held Friday at the home of Mrs. C. O. Whiteman. Officers for the year were elected as follows: Mrs. Whiteman, president; Mrs. H. L. Russell, vice president; Mrs. L. E. Stiff, secretary; and Mrs. Grace Peachey, treasurer. Rev. John Hager was named chairman of the day and his wife pianist. The theme for this year is Believing Ye Shall Receive.

Several churches were not represented and if they want to participate they should contact Mrs. Whiteman. World Day of Prayer will be February 25 at the Bible church.

Mathews Hear Dale Sanders

MIST—Visitors at the Walter Mathews home Saturday were Miss Michele Weidlinger of Sherwood and Dale Sanders, Portland. Michele teaches French at the George Fox College in Newberg. Bert Lloyd Eastman was in the vicinity Saturday and called on the Walt Mathews. He and his wife are in Portland for a few weeks and she is having a series of radium treatments.

Sunday the Mathews were breakfast guests of the Sulo Sanders in Westport and accompanied them to church in Carrolls, Wash. where Dale preached.

Mrs. Don Hall and daughter of Morton, Wash. were in the vicinity Friday visiting her mother, Mrs. Maude Rogers and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Waddell attended the potluck supper at the Fernhill Grange Wednesday evening. Sunday the Waddells were at Scappoose to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Phinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hansen, Sandra and Randy were at the beach Sunday and although it was really chilly they enjoyed their trip. In the morning the family attended church at the Vernonia Bible church.

Church Dates Special Events

The Christian church will observe Sunset Heights Day Sunday. Dr. Clark Aydelott, former head chaplain of the Los Angeles county hospital, will be the guest speaker at the morning worship hour. He is now minister of the Parkrose Christian church in Portland. Mr. Sargent, the local pastor, will be speaking in the Parkrose church.

This special Sunday is being observed by many Christian churches and Churches of Christ in the Portland area in order to pay off a $3,000 property debt of the newly formed church located several miles west of Portland on the Sunset highway. A special offering will be taken by the local church for this purpose.

The guest speaker has had the distinction of being head chaplain of the largest hospitals in the world as well as having one of the longest hospital chaplaincies among Christian churches. Two of his sons are ministers.

Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. the local Sunday school will be guest of the North Plains Christian church at a chicken dinner, the award for a contest held by the two schools in which the local church was victorious. An abbreviated church service will be held following the dinner. Howard Hutchins is minister of the North Plains church. Mrs. Ray Robertson is superintendent of the local Sunday school.

Witnesses Home After Seminar

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Vernonia congregation returned home this week from a Bible conference in Longview, Washington. The convention ended Sunday with a peak attendance of 978.

The high attendance was reached at the climax of the three-day seminar at the public lecture, "What Does the Resurrection From the Dead Mean to You and Yours?" given by Allyn L. Franck, district official from the World Headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses in Brooklyn, New York. Mr. Franck was quoted as saying, "The Bible is unique in that it is the only sacred book in existence that teaches a resurrection of the dead. The teachings of immortality of the human soul and resurrection contradict each other. Since one of them must be false it is the immortality of the human soul teaching that finds no basis in the scripture but is rooted in paganism. The Bible teaches resurrection of the dead."

Another highlight of the conference was the baptism and ordination service at which 15 ministers were added to the world wide Bible teaching fellowship.
