Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crawford returned home February 1 from a trip begun December 13 and made by Trailways bus to visit a number of relatives and friends. Their first stop was the home of a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kauffman at Redmond and the second, the home of a grand daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sturza at Caldwell, Idaho. In Salt Lake City they stopped for a sight seeing tour. The Christmas lighting there and on the night trip from Salt Lake City to Phoenix, Arizona were greatly enjoyed. In Scottsdale, Arizona they were guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hoge and family for a month which included Christmas. Enroute home they came through California and visited former Timber route residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chesbro at Montclair, Mr. Crawford's 93 year old uncle, Dave McMillan at Long Beach and a son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bush at Concord. They had good weather for their entire trip.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel West were their grandchildren, Margaret Michele, Marianne and Maureen McDonald of Portland.
Ben Brickel arrived home Wednesday of last week from Portland and is recuperating from recent surgery.
Mr. and Mrs. David McMinn and family from Seaside were visiting in Vernonia Sunday. They attended morning services at the EUB church.
Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beers were Mr. and Mrs. Claire Fogel of Clatskanie. The Beers recently were in Portland to look up a former college friend of Mr. Beers, and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ivo Notenboon.
Mrs. Joe Medges took her son Mark to Portland Tuesday to join other air force enlistees for flight to Lackland air base at San Antonio, Texas to begin basic training.
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Skidmore received word last week from their son Fred who had been in training at the Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri army base, that he was being sent to Viet Nam. He called them Saturday from San Francisco to say he would fly Sunday to Kahm Ran Bay.
Guests last week end at the home of Mrs. Olivia Wood were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Smith of Roseburg.
Raymond Hartzell and Robert Andrus have enlisted in the Air Force and left Portland last Wednesday evening for Lackland Air Force base in Texas to begin basic training.
Miss Betty Berg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Berg of Longview, enrolled at Vernonia high school Monday in the junior class. She had her first two years of high school here prior to the move by the family to Longview. She will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Skidmore during the school term.

The Ralph Bergerson family was surprised with a housewarming dinner party Saturday evening at their new home on Timber road nine miles from Vernonia. Two aunts, Mrs. Chet Lintner of Hillsboro and Mrs. Cass Bergerson acted as co-hostesses. Guests included Mrs. John Reitz and son John Jr. of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tapp of North Plains, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nordstrom of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eastery and Mrs. Ralph Winter of Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bergerson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bergerson and children, Fred and Debra, Mr. and Mrs. Cass Bergerson and Mrs. Lintner. Mrs. Nordstrom decorated two cakes to resemble a pair of table lamps. John Reitz, an outstanding music student, played several selections on the piano.

Mrs. Carl Davis and Mrs. Alfred Webb of Glenwood were the guests of their son and daughter, respectively, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis of Clatskanie for a trip to Tillamook Sunday and a dinner which honored the birthdays of the two mothers who had birthdays within the following ten days. Mrs. Davis visited her grandchildren, Carla and Rusty Davis, while in Tillamook.

Mrs. Albert Childs spent several days last week at the home of her granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Phillips in Portland. Saturday evening, they attended the Junior Miss America pageant at Cleveland high school in which another daughter, Carol Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Childs of Beaverton, was a contestant.

Guests last Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lange were former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Casey Fest of Salem who also called on several other former neighbors. Mrs. Fest was greatly surprised to have a beautiful flower arrangement delivered to her at the Lange home, a gift from her daughters for her birthday. Mrs. Lucille Fowler visited at the Lange home Wednesday afternoon, also.

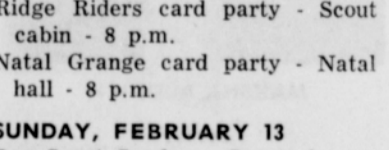

Callers Sunday before last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luck on Timber route were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Art Owens of Clatskanie, Mr. and Mrs. Max Brown and grandson Robert from Portland. Robert, who is Mrs. Luck's grandnephew, will leave for the service February 21.

Funerals Should Be Sensible
As man has progressed through the ages, he's learned to be more practical in his approach to life . . . and death. The price that's right for one family is not necessarily right for another. At Fuiten/Friesen we offer funerals priced to every budget. We offer dignity at a modest cost. Practicality plays a very large part in the making of funeral arrangements. Our reputation is based on years of service to families in need of comfort and guidance.
