Tigers Hand Loggers Loss

A fired-up Tiger quint blasted a big hole in Vernonia's title aspirations this past Friday at Clatskanie by downing the Loggers by a score of 58-55. Clatskanie came into the contest as a dark horse but emerged with a crucial victory in the western division title race.

As of this time Vernonia stands 3-1; Seaside, Warrenton and Clatskanie follow close behind with 2-2 records and Neah-Kah-Nie is on the bottom of the heap. Vernonia has four counting games remaining and needs wins in all four to have a chance at a league title and three wins are necessary to be in contention for second place in their league half, states Coach Bert Kronmiller.

In the Clatskanie contest, the Loggers were led offensively by Fred Smith, who garnered 24 points. Jerry Hanson and Dave Larson followed with 14 each, Curl had 2 and Elton 1. Jim Armstrong and Cleve Multanen were high for the Tigers with 18 and 15.

A probable factor in the Vernonia loss was the illness of several players during the week preceding the game, although Clatskanie was fired up and out to knock off the league leading quint. This defeat puts Vernonia on a spot and they will have to produce to the fullest of their capabilities to keep title hopes alive.

Saturday night, the Loggers went to Banks to encounter the Braves in a non-league contest. Jumping

JVs Lose Two During Week

Two hard played games this past week end ended in defeats for the Logger JVs as Clatskanie and Banks took their measure. Coach Crowston's team was downed Friday night at Clatskanie by a 32-45 score and then fell under the Banks attack Saturday 47-55.

Scoring at Clatskanie was led by Gary Hanson with 11 points, followed by Pete Brunsmann with 8; Peddicord and S. Curl 4 each; Nightwine and Robertson 2; and Davis 1. High point man for the game was Clatskanie's Palomaki with 13.

In the Banks contest, Dave Peddicord led the Loggers with 15 points, only two below the game high point man, Lasromboise of Banks, who hit for 17. Buddy Robertson added 12 to the total; P. Brunsmann and Ellis 6 each; Holsey 5; and G. Hanson 3.
