

Visitors Noted In Many Homes

Lloyd Beach and Mrs. Arthur Bellingham went to Seaside Saturday. They brought Mrs. Elsa Richardson back to Birkenfeld with them to spend several days at the Bellingham home.

Mrs. Laura Carmichael of Vernonia visited Sunday with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Berg. Two of the Berg's grandchildren, Daren and Loren Berg, spent Sunday night with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Larson and son Fred went to Silverton Sunday to attend a housewarming in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Sacher. Mr. Sacher is a nephew of Francis. There were approximately 60 relatives and friends present.

Ann Ramsey was home from Portland over the week end. She came to Clatskanie by bus on Friday evening. Mr. Ramsey and Paul took her back to Cascade College Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Ramsey, daughter Vicky and Julie Spitzer went to Vernonia Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Norman Hansen to attend the Rainbow Girls installation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson and small son Joey made a business trip to Portland Saturday. By the way, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crouch visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson instead of Mr. and Mrs. George Bellingham when they were here from Astoria recently. The Birkenfeld reporter just got the Georges mixed up.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stuve were in Portland Friday on business. Saturday they were in Forest Grove to take care of their grandchildren, Kim and Kevin Bender while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender attended the funeral of Fred's grandmother in Washington. Monday the Stuves were in Warrenton and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Salmi (Dolores Stuve), and two boys.

Winema Grange met Thursday evening. One of the things they did at this meeting was to drape the charter for the late Gustav Anderson, a long time member. Mr. Anderson was always faithful in paying his dues each year, but was not always able to attend.

Knits and Purls Review Officer Training Meet

The Knits and Purls 4-H club met at Mrs. Richard Huntman's home last Wednesday. The meeting was called to order by vice-president Christy Normand.

The girls discussed the officers training day January 30. The meeting was closed and refreshments were served.

Applicants for Offices Sought

Department of State recruiting officers will be in Portland from February 23 through February 25. They are looking for qualified young people for positions in American embassies and consulates in some 300 cities, from Adelaide to Zagreb. They are also looking for candidates for positions in the "home" office in Washington, D.C.

"These jobs must be filled by the best-qualified young people we can find," said one of the recruiting officers who has served at foreign service posts around the world. "Our standards are high, and we plan to keep them that way; but those fortunate enough to qualify will find a challenging, interesting career with an added 'bonus': the satisfaction which comes from serving one's country in a vital capacity."

Consideration for foreign service positions will be given to experienced secretaries who are single and have shorthand skill, and to communications clerks with recent experience in cryptography or teletype. Applicants must be American citizens who are high school graduates at least 21 and able to pass qualifying tests. Salaries are from $4,641 to $5,190 per year. Washington positions are open for typists and stenographers who are high school graduates, American citizens at least 18, and able to pass qualifying tests. Salaries range from $3,814 to $5,190 per year.

Interviews will be conducted at the Oregon State Employment Service, 610 S.W. Broadway, Portland, February 23 through February 25. Hours are 8:30 to 4:30 daily, and until 7 p.m. Wednesday. The telephone number is 226-2161.
