Rites Held For Mrs. Drorbaugh

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Drorbaugh were conducted Thursday February 10 at 2:30 p.m. at the Fuiten-Friesen Mortuary, Forest Grove.
The Rev. John Kelly, pastor of the United Church of Christ, Forest Grove, officiated at the services with Mrs. Richard Bunker, organist. Concluding rites and interment were at the Forest View cemetery, Forest Grove with Cass Bergerson, Edgar Tapp, Glen Hawkins, Loel Hieber, Walter Linn and Harry Culbertson serving as casket bearers.
Mrs. Drorbaugh was born at Forest Grove March 10, 1893, the daughter of the late Joseph and Eva Leatherman Blank. She received her education and was united in marriage to George Drorbaugh at Hillsboro in July 1912.
Mr. Drorbaugh followed the logging and lumbering industry and they spent all of their early married years at Timber, West Timber, Buxton and then for many years lived at Vernonia. In 1951 they moved to Medford where he was in maintenance work for the Medford school system until retirement. They returned to Forest Grove in 1962 and he preceded her in death there in August 1963. Mrs. Drorbaugh passed away at Forest Grove Tuesday, February 8 following an extended illness.
Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. W. S. (Maybelle) Cochran, Central Point; a sister, Mrs. Edna Moery, Portland; two grandsons, William and Mark Cochran and two great grandchildren.
Mrs. Drorbaugh was a member of Nehalem Chapter, Order of Eastern Star and served as worthy matron in 1940. She later transferred to Adre Chapter No. 3 at Jacksonville.

Unit Studies Education Cost

The Timber Route Extension Unit met February 8 at the West Oregon Electric building at 10:30 a.m.
The project presented by Mrs. H. J. Fields and Mrs. F. E. Fuquay on "Cost of Higher Education and Training" contained much information on costs of different Oregon colleges (tuition, room and board, books and supplies etc.)
It is important for parents to begin planning their children's college education early and wise to back this hope with sound financial planning.
The nominating committee for unit officers for next year includes Mrs. H. J. Fields, Mrs. Wm. Gardner and Mrs. Mel Bergerson. The election of officers is to be held at the March meeting.
A successful silent auction was held and the handmade valentine exchange was enjoyed by members.
There were 10 members and three visitors, Mrs. Archie Christensen, Mrs. Gail Mathis and Mrs. James DeYoung. Hostess, Mrs. Don Bergerson served the delicious pot luck lunch at noon.
