Demos to Elect State Delegates

The Columbia county Democratic central committee will meet Monday, February 21, at 8:15 p.m. in the Scappoose high school library to elect delegates to the party's state pre-primary convention. The meeting on Monday is open to members of the party.

Seven delegates with alternates will be chosen to attend the convention, which will draft a new state platform in Medford on March 25, 26 and 27.

Other Democrats from Columbia county who are eligible to attend are Franciene Urban, chairman of the Columbia county central committee; Donald Kalberer, vice-chairman; Wayne Turner, state legislator; Earl Seawright, county judge; O. D. Clark and Louis Wasser, county commissioners; Roy Nelson, clerk; Louise Johnson, treasurer; Roy Wilburn, sheriff, Frank LeMont, assessor.

According to the rules for determining delegates, Columbia county, with 17 delegates, will be permitted more than Polk, Benton, Clatsop, Tillamook, Washington or Yamhill counties, in the first congressional district.

Do your best today and you'll be hard to beat tomorrow.

Sewing Sisters Learn Use of Sewing Tools

The fourth meeting of the 4-H Sewing Sisters was held February 19 at the home of their leader, Mrs. Robert Borders. Three members were present and Zenda Ellis, junior leader.

Sharlene Gibson cut out and finished making her scarf. Celeste Hytrek and Sharon Brewer cut out their dresses.

The girls are learning why it is necessary to cut out notches and what the straight of the grain means on the patterns. Zenda demonstrated how to make darts with a tracing wheel. Refreshments for the group were served by Sharon Brewer.

Acting reporter, Celeste Hytrek

West Coast Co. Milestone Set

A lieutenant commander in the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey became a permanent part of West Coast Telephone company history on February 8 when the company's 250,000 telephone was installed in his home. The specially engraved instrument will be used by Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. L. L. Posey, who have just established their home in the company's Richmond Beach exchange north of Seattle.

"In ten years with the Coast and Geodetic Survey," Posey said, "this is our third tour in the Puget Sound area, and the third time we've had West Coast Telephone service—but we certainly weren't expecting to become a part of the company's history."

Installation of telephone No. 250,000 is indeed a milestone for West Coast Telephone company, whose growth closely parallels that of the Pacific Northwest. Incorporated in 1928, the company took 24 years to install its 100,000th telephone, 10 more years to gain the 200,000th and only 45 additional months to reach the quarter-million mark. A member of the General System, West Coast's serving area includes parts of Washington, Oregon and northern California.

Too many people are trying to save the world, and too few are trying to save themselves.
