

Band Parents Schedule Meeting Monday Evening

The Vernonia Band Parents club will meet next Monday evening, March 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the band room at the Washington school. Charles Randell, band instructor, will present his advanced band in several numbers.

Mrs. Wm. Rundle, club president, urges all parents of band students and all other interested persons to attend this meeting. Projects are to be discussed which need the support of as many as possible. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

New Hair Style Seen at Show

Mrs. Juanita Morford, owner of the Cut and Curl Room, and her assistant, Miss Ann Bartles were in Portland last Sunday and Monday to attend the Northwest Beauty and Trade Show at the Hilton hotel. The event was sponsored by the national hair styling council and featured the newest in hair and featured the newest in hair styles for the 1966 spring season.

Mrs. Morford stated that stylist, in demonstrations, presented the new spring look, the Dickie Bird cut which is described as the new motion in hair look. It is real short with a one sided emphasis. It is in the presently used trend styling but features more the symmetrical line.

She stated that stylists also presented the new three-dimensional trend in hair coloring, called the echo coloring.

Guest stars at the show were Grace Doran and Buddy Francis.

Mrs. Carol Young, owner of Carol's Beauty Shop had also planned to attend the show but was kept home by illness in her family.

Students Enter Speech Contest

Students in the Vernonia high school speech classes taught by Mrs. Alvilda Hearing are presently working on a project sponsored by the Oregon Association of Realtors. That group is offering scholarships to students who enter and win in speech contests for which the topic, Opportunities in Real Estate will be used.

Working under the Oregon Association of Realtors, there are 29 local realty boards throughout the state and each board is authorized to conduct a local contest to select a winner to enter the state contest.

The Columbia county board will give a $100 scholarship to the county winner who will enter the state contest at Eugene May 14 to compete for a $500 scholarship.

Mrs. Hearing's students are presently collecting source materials and acquainting themselves with the subject. Each speech student will make a speech as a class assignment and from these, one will be chosen to compete in the county contest April 15.

Arrangements for the participation of Vernonia students in the contest were made by Lloyd Quinn, local realtor, who is a member of the county board of realtors. Quinn stated that the expenses of the student and teacher attending the contests will be cared for by the realty board.

Rainbow Girls Honor Visitor

Feb. 28 was a regular meeting for the Nehalem Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls. They were honored by the visitation of Grand Worthy Advisor Christie Peterson of Waverly Assembly No. 4 in Portland. She was accompanied by her mother advisor, Mrs. Ruth Borchert.

Jeri Rundle and Belinda Brewer were then initiated into Nehalem Assembly.

A clever degree was given Christie in which she was presented money for her project for the blind and also a piece of her silverware. She was also presented with a corsage made from stamps as she is gathering stamps for the Forest Grove Masonic Home.

Among the several visitors were Mrs. Irene Jones, grand deputy and Marilyn Jones, grand chaplain.

Odd Fellows Attend Meet

Four members of Vernonia Odd Fellows Lodge No. 246 attended the district meeting held last Saturday at St. Helens. They were P. E. Markham, noble grand; Harry Culbertson, secretary; Albert Tandy and Frank Lentz. Seven lodges were represented and total attendance was 45.

Sessions were held in the afternoon and evening, with dinner served by the Rebekahs between the two sessions. Degree work was exemplified, officers were elected for the next term and Astoria was set as the meeting place in 1967.

Due to illness, the grand master was unable to be present but was represented by the deputy grand master, George Hollett of Portland. Oscar Beech of Portland, grand warden, also was present.

Barracks Date Quarter Meet

Veterans of W. W. I. district No. I held their third quarterly meeting in the Beaver building, 9th & Hawthorn, Portland, Saturday, February 26.

Barracks 53 and the auxiliary were most gracious hosts. A wonderful pot luck dinner was served preceding the meeting. District commander Loran Stiff convened the meeting in due form at 2 p.m.

There was a good turnout. All barracks except one was represented and there were several visitors present from other districts. Nearly all officers from district No. I and the Department of Oregon were present.

There were some excellent talks on patriotism, membership and general welfare.

There can be no doubt that the year 1966 has started out well, and a prosperous year is expected.

Attorney Named Campaign Head

Congressman Wendell Wyatt (R-Ore.) has announced that Glenn R. Jack, Oregon City attorney, will be his campaign committee chairman.

Wyatt, who recently announced he would be a candidate for reelection, stated, "I am proud to have a man of the calibre of Glenn Jack as the chairman of my campaign for reelection. His support and assistance during my first congressional session has been of very great aid to me in performing many of the functions of my office."

THE PEOPLE SPEAK --

Regarding the story that Senator Wayne Morse was kicked in the head by a horse, there seems to be some controversy. Most people seem to think it was a mule.

District IOOF Meet Is Sunday

There will be a district association meeting of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs at the Vernonia IOOF hall Sunday, March 13 to which all members are invited. There will be a potluck dinner at 1:00 p.m. which will be followed by the business meeting.

Principle project of this association is the sponsoring of a delegate to the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth which takes young people from all over the nation on a trip to the United Nations, the capitol at Washington, D.C. and historic Williamsburg in July.

At this meeting, final plans will be made by the group, which includes lodges in Clatsop and Columbia counties, for the regional speech contest to be held at Seaside March 26. Delegates from high schools from throughout the district will compete and a delegate and alternate will be selected.

Two representatives from Vernonia high school will be entered. They are Ann Sargent and David Serafin whose essays have already been sent in for judging. Both the essay and the speech count in the contest. Local students are from the speech classes of Mrs. Alvilda Hearing.
