CSWC Board Is Organized

The Clatskanie Soil and Water Conservation district, board of supervisors met for their first meeting of the year last week. Elections were held for officers for the coming year with the following results obtained: Chairman, George Cowles, Rainier; vice-chairman, Carl Blunk, Hudson; secretary, Carl Zimmerman, Lost Creek; treasurer, Verald McBride, Hudson.

Other supervisors on the board are Howard Grimsbo, Mist; Paul Newman, Clatskanie, and Russell Carver, Woodson. New cooperators who requested technical assistance from the district and received district approval of their requests were: Willis Harriman, Vernonia; Beaver Sport Properties (Vernonia Golf Club) Vernonia; Howard Grimsbo, Mist; and M.O.C. Kelson, Delena.

Additional business was the review of Conservation farm plans and revisions and their approval. The following plans were reviewed and approved by the board: Richard Ekhoft, Mist; George Cowles, Rainier; Corban Pellham, Fern Hill; Gene Groskopf, Clatskanie; K.R. Moyer, Woodson; Earl Blodgett, Midland; John Wilmarth and John Wolf, Quincy; Wayne Markham, Vernonia; S.P. Klein, Keasey; Ken Nelson, Mayger; Wayne Pugh, Delena; Elmer Hurula, Midland; Richard Abrahamson, Midland.

Discussions were centered on the new Tri-county association of soil conservation districts (Tillamook, Clatsop and Clatskanie SWCD's) and their meeting at Vernonia April 21.

Some men have a way with women, but it's seldom their own.

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Miss Nancy Skidmore who is home from Oregon State University for spring vacation, is in charge this week at Fabrics 'n Fashions while her mother, Mrs. Doris Skidmore, recuperates from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Poetter returned home Monday from Hollywood, California after visiting for five weeks with his sister, Mrs. Charlotte Moulton and her son and daughter in Hollywood. They also visited in other places and saw Marineland, Knott's Berry Farm and other tourist attractions. However, they were very glad to get back to Vernonia.

John Siedelman was out with his hounds Monday and caught two wildcats, one near his own home on Pebble Creek road and the other in the Birkenfeld area.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lange were in Portland from Thursday to Saturday of last week as house guests of Mrs. J. W. McKenzie. They also visited Mrs. Lange's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Marrs and Mr. Lange's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Shere.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vealey and son Ken have moved to the home they have purchased on OA hill. They formerly lived in the Orville Edwards house on the Capitol Hill road.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Albert Childs all of last week were her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Lumm of San Francisco and Mr. Lumm's daughter, Mrs. Mike Phillips and two little girls from Portland.

Ed Kamholz who is at home for spring vacation will be entering Portland State College next week with the start of the spring term. He has transferred from Clark College at Vancouver after completing the second term of his sophomore year there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Justice arrived home Sunday evening from their five-month winter vacation in Arizona where they spent time at Tucson, Boulder City and Yuma. The latter has a winter population of some 20 to 30,000 retired persons who come for the winter months. They have their own Senior Citizens club activities and many good friends are made with others from all parts of the country. Also in Arizona this winter were former resident, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis John of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kirk of Tigard and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Goertzen who will be returning home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Groff moved recently from Vernonia to Riverside, California where he is now employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Seibel have news from her sister Jan that she and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Haase, left last week end on a two weeks tour of Europe. They flew from Los Angeles to New York Friday night and were to spend Saturday there, then fly Saturday night from New York to Rome as the first leg on their tour. Some time will be spent in Germany where they will visit relatives of Mr. Haase.

Mrs. Maude Wells, one of the Vernonia teachers who attended the OEA convention last week during spring vacation, reports that one of the highlights for her was meeting Miss Bel Kaufman, author of the book, Up the Down Staircase, which is an attack on the system which so burdens teachers with routine duties of discipline and reporting that time for teaching is curtailed. Her book graphically reveals to a large segment of the public some knowledge of the problems which a teacher faces.

An announcement last week end concerning the Silverton union high school chorales was of interest locally because they are instructed by a former Vernonia music teacher, Robert Thornton. According to the announcement, he and his wife and another faculty couple will accompany the 27-voice choir to Hawaii April 3 for the annual Madrigal Festival. The $6,600 to finance the trip has been raised by public donations, contributions from parents and earnings of the chorales in singing engagements before a number of conventions and meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cagle moved last week end to Beaverton to be more conveniently located with regard to their employment. They have sold their home on O.A. hill to Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Pederson.

Mrs. M. J. Lamping returned home Friday from Gualala, California where she had spent the past six weeks with her son Clyde and family. She reported lots of rain and cold weather there and that all of them had had flu during her visit so she was glad to get back to Vernonia, in spite of the snow and storms that greeted her.

Mrs. Marie Shafer has been ill again the past week with a bronchial congestion but is improving this week.

Mrs. Eva Gallimore left Sunday for her home in Albuquerque, New Mexico after spending several weeks here with her sister, Mrs. Leona Haverland and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Garner were in Forest Grove Sunday and called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred May. Their son Freddy was home from the hospital with his hand in a cast. Further treatment will be required when that is removed and the progress can be checked. He has not yet returned to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hathaway and daughter Jeannette drove to LaGrande Saturday to meet another daughter, Mrs. Carl Carnegie and son Joe from Eureka, Montana and bring them to Vernonia for several days visit. They made the return trip Saturday evening.

Guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Devine were her sister, Mrs. Jim Hirtzel and children, Carl and Carol from Portland. Sunday guests for a dinner observing Mr. Devine's birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Odin Anderson and grandson of Portland and Mrs. John Link from Lebanon. The two ladies, who are sisters, were Mr. Devine's first school teachers at Clatskanie. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson also taught in the Vernonia elementary schools in the 1920s.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Laurila have been busy the past two weeks getting settled in their new home, house 22 on OA hill. They sold their previous home at 1131 Clatsop street to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown of Portland who moved in last week end.

Bartlett Rites Are on Monday

Mrs. Margaret Bartlett, 80, resident of rural Washington county for the past 20 years, died in the Hillsboro hospital Wednesday following confinement there for two weeks. Funeral services were held Monday, March 21, at 1:30 p.m. in the Fuiten-Friessen Mortuary in Hillsboro.

A native of Severy, Kansas, Margaret Monical was born November 18, 1885 the daughter of Alonzo and Elizabeth Monical. As a little girl she came to Vernonia where the family homesteaded near Mist. She attended school in that area until she was 11 years old when disaster struck and her mother was drowned in the Nehalem river. She went back to Kansas and lived with an aunt and completed her schooling there and shortly her schooling there and shortly after that came back to Portland.

Margaret Monical was united in marriage to Edgar J. Bartlett in Portland, January 17, 1906. After tow years of residence in Portland they moved to Fort Benton, Montana where they homesteaded. This was their home for 35 years until their retirement when they moved to Oregon and bought their farm home on Rt. 3 Box 197, Sherwood.

Her husband preceded her in death December 1, 1959.

Surviving are three children: Irving A. Bartlett and Mrs. Frank (Lucille) Ludwig, both of Fort Benton, Montana; and Mrs. Arthur (Mildred) Tauscher, Sherwood, Oregon; a sister-in-law; Mrs. E. F. Monical, Portland, Oregon; six grandchildren and six great grandchildren.
