Officers Visit Barracks Meet

Members of Vernonia Barracks No. 2525, Veterans of World War 1 and the ladies' auxiliary met Monday afternoon at the IOOF hall for the usual 1:00 p.m. potluck dinner followed by the separate meetings of the two groups. There was a good turn-out of local members and there also were guests, Department Commander Ed Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, Department Chaplain Herbert Calfee and Mrs. Calfee and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. (Happy) Thompson from Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Art Gardner from Woodburn.

In the meetings which followed the dinner, each group received a new member. The Barracks initiated Hiram Smart who has been a resident of Vernonia for the past year and the auxiliary initiated Mrs. Jean Connors of Keasey route.

The auxiliary draped their charter for Mrs. Beatrice Crawford who was musician for the group.

In the Barracks meeting, the department commander brought up the drug bill recently passed for discussion. It was stated that in order to get the benefit the veteran has to belong to the World War 1 organization. He stated that other bills are coming up that will be of benefit to veterans and urged all who are eligible to join the Barracks so as to keep informed and get the advantages due them.

The next meeting of the two groups will be April 25.

Guests Slated By Arts Group

Mr. and Mrs. Erich Porshman of Portland will present a program of art, films and craft work at the meeting of the Society of Arts and Crafts Monday evening, April 4 at 8 p.m. at the West Oregon Electric meeting room.

Mr. Porshman will present his series of films which he calls "The Sound of Music". These were taken during a trip to the original scenes of the true story of the Trapp family, who are now famous for the stage and screen adaptation, "The Sound of Music" from the autobiography by Mrs. Trapp titled "The Trapp Family Singers". Mr. Porshman will also show a group of his water color paintings and drawings.

Mrs. Porshman will display articles she has crafted from plastic resin and other materials; also examples of stitchery, an art form which has been revived in popularity in the past few years.

This meeting is open to all who are interested in attending. At the meeting of the society March 7, the senior board member, Mrs. Ralph Valpiani, installed officers for the new term as follows: President, Mrs. W. E. Wilson; first vice-president, Miss Janeice Kenyon; second vice-president, Miss Gail Bolding; secretary, Mrs. Sam Murray; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Peterson; member of the board, Mrs. T. M. Hobart.

Displayed after the meeting was a very interesting group of pottery and other articles made of native Vernonia clay. The articles were made by Miss Bolding and Miss Kenyon, who have spent many hours recently searching for native clays in the Vernonia area, and experimenting with its use.

Whitemans Note Golden Wedding

The Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Corbett O. Whiteman was observed last Saturday, March 26 at the home of their son, Tex Whiteman of Tigard and eight of their 11 children and members of their families were present to observe the occasion with them.

Those in attendance included Dr. and Mrs. Joe V. Whiteman and son Mike from Stillwater, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whiteman, Farmington, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Don Whiteman and Donna, Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Whiteman, Linda, Jim, Dave and Dan, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle (Nedra) Hathaway, Brad and Karen, Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Gary (Shirley) Woodring, Ned and Gretchen, Klamath Falls; Miss Nell Whiteman, Forest Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Tex Whiteman, Vicki, Jane, Debbie and Ted of Tigard.

Their children unable to attend were Wayne Whiteman of Durango, Colorado; Mrs. Edwin (June) Meyers of Montrose, Colorado and Carl Whiteman of Salt Lake City who is a captain for Capital Airways and was transferred from the Atlantic to the Pacific to fly supplies to Viet Nam.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteman were married March 26, 1916 at Hillview, Illinois at her parents' home and they lived in Illinois for some time and most of their children were born there. They later moved to Colorado. They had always farmed and after Mr. Whiteman retired they moved to Vernonia three years ago.

To round out the week end celebration, the children who had been at Tigard on Saturday were all at the Whiteman home in Riverview last Sunday.
