Interesting news from two former Vernonia art teachers is that they have now joined forces for work in ceramics for which they are finding a ready market at Meier and Franks. Mrs. William Chalmers, the former Nancy Fletcher who taught art at Vernonia grade school, and Mrs. Eric Feasey who was high school art instructor here, are now both living in Cathlamet, Washington. They call their enterprise the Chalmers-Feasey Decorative Figueres company. Just recently they delivered to Meier and Franks 15 17-inch figures on the old west theme which will appear in store windows from April 7 to 20. They are now working on 10 rock and roll figures for the teen shop at Meier and Franks.

Miss Patricia Rundle, who had been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rundle on Mist route since the first of the year has moved back to Portland. Last week end she flew to Los Angeles to visit her fiancé who is stationed on the cruiser USS Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lange were in Portland Sunday to meet her aunt, Mrs. Lydia Johnson and son Lester from Minnesota who had been in California and were enroute home. They were stopping at the Cosmopolitan Motor Inn and the Langes were their guests there for dinner. The Johnsons came to Vernonia Monday for a visit of several days with the Langes.

Service Monday For VanAlstine

Charles VanAlstine, a resident of Vernonia since 1923, passed away March 31 at the Forest Grove Convalescent Home where he had lived for the past year and a half. He was 89 years of age.

Funeral services were conducted at the Fuiten-Friesen Mortuary Chapel, Vernonia Monday, April 4 at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. Robert Sargent, pastor of the First Christian church, officiating.

Lodge rites were under the auspices of Vernonia Lodge No. 246 IOOF with Harry Culbertson in charge. Concluding rites and interment were at the Vernonia Memorial cemetery with A. E. Wood, Ernest Herman, Bill Horn, Albert Tandy, Nels Hogeberg and E. G. Wiederkehr, all members of the Vernonia IOOF lodge, serving as casket bearers.

Mr. VanAlstine was born at Souix Falls, South Dakota August 8, 1876 and spent all of his early life in the mid-western states of Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma. He was united in marriage to Adda Shawl at Garden City, Kansas on June 29, 1909 and they lived in that city for five years. They then spent several years in Oklahoma and Arkansas before coming to Vernonia to help construct the Oregon American Lumber company mill in 1923. Mr. VanAlstine later worked for a number of years for the county road department. He also enjoyed doing carpentry and repair work in his spare time.

Mr. VanAlstine was a member of the IOOF Lodge for over 50 years. He and his wife observed their 56th wedding anniversary last year.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Adda VanAlstine, Vernonia; a brother, Arthur VanAlstine, Roseburg; and several nieces and nephews.

W. Ingermansen Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Willard Ingermansen, were held Saturday, April 2 at 11 a.m. at the Fuiten-Friesen Mortuary Chapel, Vernonia.

The Rev. L. A. DuBose of Hillsboro, pastor of the Vernonia Baptist church officiated at the services with Robert Sargent as soloist and Mrs. Lloyd Thomas, organist. Concluding services and interment were at the Vernonia Memorial cemetery with Elmer Smith, Clyde Purcell, Bert and Pete Brunsmann, Bill Nichols and Floyd Markley serving as casket bearers.

Mr. Ingermansen was a native of Dallas, Oregon where he was born May 5, 1894, the son of the late Morgan and Florence Ingermansen. He spent his early life in the Willamette Valley and then later lived in Portland. He was united in marriage to Emma L. Drager at Vancouver, Washington August 21, 1931 and after living for a time in Portland they moved to Banks where he farmed for six years. In 1939 he moved to his present farm home on Timber route where he passed away March 30 following an extended illness.

Before his retirement Mr. Ingermansen worked for a number of years for the highway department; at the Vernonia shingle mill and then for the Sunset feed mill.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Emma Ingermansen, at the family; a sister, Mrs. Josie Reed, Pasco, Washington and a number of nieces and nephews.

Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest.

Even a new deal can't help the man who has no blue chips.
