

Community Club Plans for Prom

JEWELL — The Community club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Slanger. They have been very busy the past week planning for the high school prom, which will be April 30. A prince and princess will be chosen from the student body since there are no seniors to be queen and king. The prom will be held in the Nehalem Valley Grange hall. The music will be provided by the Nomads, a group from Portland.

The Community club has also been planning for the rowboat race. It will be May 7, starting at 9 a.m.

Susan Smith spent the week end in Seaside with relatives.

Merle and Hilda Tiedeman of Creswell, spent several days in the valley visiting friends this week. The Tiedemans are former residents of Jewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larsen visited with Mrs. Larsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nordstrom, of Birkenfeld, over the week end.

The Jewell Grange met last Monday evening. Lee Woodon, representative of the state safety commission, gave a talk on safety and the slow moving driver. M. M. Samuelson, was appointed by the master to represent Jewell Grange in the county safety program.

Jill Jepson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jepson, enrolled in the first grade at Jewell. She formerly attended Delake grade school in Lincoln City.

A community chairman 4-H meeting was held Saturday in the flag building in Astoria. Mrs. Fred Slanger represented the Jewell area.

The Jewell grade school boys played a softball game Friday afternoon, April 22 against Westport. Jewell won 15-14.

The Jewell high school girls traveled to Knappa Thursday, April 21 to play softball, only to be defeated.

One good thing about a dull party is that you get to bed at a decent hour.

Dad's Illness Prompts Trip to Pennsylvania

RIVERVIEW — Mrs. John Normand returned home Sunday after spending a month with her father, Irvin Anderson at Scottsdale, Pennsylvania due to his illness. Darla spent the time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McKee and Irvin and John stayed with their aunt, Mrs. Richard Goodman.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lloyd were Mr. and Mrs. Myrt Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Norris of Portland. Week end visitor was their son, Jewell Lloyd of Auburn, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parker and Mrs. Marie Christensen attended the Historical Society meeting at Deer Island Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrt Jenkins of Portland visited his twin sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rose, on Sunday.

NATAL-PITTSBURG — Mr. and Mrs. Orin Davis enjoyed dinner at the Pixie Kitchen and a drive down the coast recently. Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod of Yamhill accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. DeeVeere Hershey and son were Friday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tupper.

Mrs. Norma McLeod and Mrs. Orin Davis drove to Yamhill one day last week and were joined by Mrs. Virginia McLeod for a drive to McMinnville for lunch and also did some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Dass were in St. Helens one day last week to call on Mrs. Dave Davis and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Oblak enjoyed a drive to Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Peterson visited Mr. and Mrs. Noble Dunlap Monday. That evening the Dunlaps were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. DeeVeere Hershey.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Grant and children spent the week end at Silvertown visiting his family.

Local Church Dates Chorale

Saturday evening, April 30, the Northwest Christian College Chorale will be presenting a musical program at the First Christian church. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will feature the best in sacred music.

The chorale is composed of twelve select voices from a larger hundred-voice college choir. It is under the direction of Dr. Gilbert Kistler. The whole family would enjoy this free and inspiring evening.

Besides the chorale, the college has traveling quartets and trios. The Christian church will be host to the N.C.C. Trio at the morning worship hour on May 15.

Sunday evening, May 1, a film produced for television will be shown at the Christian church by the North Willamette Evangelistic association evangelist Elerly Parrish. The film is a musical narrative of a visit to historic Jerusalem. The film, "Back to Jerusalem," has received national acclaim for its outstanding appeal to television audiences across the country.

Special guests for the evening will be the members of the St. Helens Christian church. They will bring their Boys Bell Choir, a group of young bell-ringing musicians. Evening services begin at 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited to attend.

EUB Circle to Hold Work Day

The ladies of the E.U.B. Circle met at the church April 20. Mae East and Aune Koski were hostesses.

President Leah Stiff called the meeting to order after which Blanche DeWitt gave the opening prayer. Leta Whiteman gave the devotion, reading an article intitled "A Man Named John" by Raymond Shaheen and a lovely prayer from the book, Prayers of Peter Marshall.

Fifteen members answered roll call and a guest, Hazel Hascall, was welcomed as a new member. Correspondence was read and various reports given. The rummage sale held earlier this month had been very successful. Members were reminded that Secret Pals would be revealed at a pot-luck dinner at the home of Lena May April 27.

April 29 there will be a work day at the church, starting at 10 a.m. Members are to assist any time during the day convenient for them to do so.

The next meeting of the E.U.B. Circle will be Wednesday, May 18 at the church at 1 p.m. Maudeleen Murray will give the devotion, Nora Harders and Nellie Snyder will be the hostesses.

The meeting was adjourned with a closing prayer by Leola Cason.

Evening in Portland Marks Anniversary

MIST — Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garlock were in Portland Saturday evening celebrating their wedding anniversary. While there they went to Vancouver Memorial hospital in Vancouver to visit her brother-in-law, Roy Totten, who had recently undergone back surgery.

Guests at the Eldon Shetler home Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Wally Larson of Portland. The Larsons and their children held the worship services at Birkenfeld and Mist churches. A large crowd attended the Mist services.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hansen accompanied the Norman Hansen family to Portland Friday to visit at the Ted Kulju home. The occasion was the celebrating of the elder Mr. Hansen's birthday.

Mathews Visit With Daughter

MIST — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mathews returned Sunday from a 16-day trip through ten states. They ate Easter breakfast in St. Paul, Minnesota, visited relatives in Des Moines, spent several days on the Graceland campus with their daughter Marian and attended their church conference in Independence, Missouri for a week. Graceland college had its spring vacation during that week and many from there attended the conference. Weatherwise they experienced snow, sunshine, rain, hail and were in Independence when the tornado struck.

The Mist-Birkenfeld Missionary ladies will meet May 4, the first Wednesday, up Fishhawk with Mrs. Lola Watson. The regular meeting conflicted with the Homemakers Festival at St. Helens, May 11, so had to be set up one week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mathews were in Hillsboro during the week.

Mrs. Lloyd Garlock was hostess Tuesday for a Stanley party with Mrs. Viola Ryckman, Clatskanie as demonstrator.

Too late to think about CAR INSURANCE!

Once an accident has happened, it's too late to wonder if your automobile insurance gives you the protection you need.

Be sure you have enough coverage — and the right kind! Bring in your policy and talk it over with us. No obligation, of course.
