TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Friends here have news from Mrs. Jacquie Scott that she and her husband and children are now settled in their home in Clovis, New Mexico and enjoying having the family together again. Mr. Scott returned home from overseas duty in Viet Nam early this fall just prior to their move to New Mexico where he was reassigned. Her folks spent Thanksgiving with them.

Mrs. L. H. Dewey of Portland visited Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Carina Childs. She had ridden to Vernonia with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Thompson who came to attend the wedding anniversary reception for Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Thomas. Mrs. Dewey also was at the reception briefly to extend her good wishes.

Rites Held for William Carr

William Carr, 70, of 711 Mist route, Vernonia, passed away Saturday, November 26, in the Veterans hospital in Portland following surgery.

Born in Kentucky in 1896, he came to Oregon after service in World War I. Mr. and Mrs. Carr moved to Vernonia seven years ago. He was a member of American Legion at Estacada, and Springwater Presbyterian church.

Survivors include the widow, Thelma, Vernonia, and eight children: Elouise Pardun, Dorena; Dorothy Swanson, Cottage Grove; Thelma Jones, Salem; Bill, Estacada; Jerene Teegarden, Scappoose; Pat Vandervort, Newport and Geraldene Carr, Longview, Washington; 24 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews.

Services were held at 2 p.m. November 29, in the Clayville Chapel in Estacada with Reverend Weldon Ferry officiating. Interment was in the IOOF cemetery at Estacada.

Men who expect to have their own way must travel alone.

Livestock Association Plans for Dinner Meet

Directors of the Columbia County Livestock Association made plans for a dinner meeting at a board meeting held at the Howard Grimsbo home last week, according to Don McPherson, Scappoose, Association president.

The dinner meeting will be a no-host affair at the Village Inn, St. Helens, on the evening of Thursday, December 8. All livestock producers, whether members of the association or not, will be welcome, says McPherson.

When day is done—often, not much else is.
