

ROSSER - STIPE

Evening Ceremony Chosen for Rosser-Stipe Wedding Rites

In an evening ceremony, December 21, Miss Patricia Rosser of Hillsboro became the bride of Paul Stipe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stipe, Portland.

The 7:30 p.m. services were performed by Rev. Herbert A. Farrar at the Calvary Baptist Church of Hillsboro, amid decorations of red and white poinsettias against a background of holly.

Given in marriage by her brother, Michael Rosser, the bride, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosser of Vernonia, wore a floor-length gown of white Chantilly over taffeta with a fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves and hooped skirt. Her bouffant veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of lace and satin. She carried a fan covered with red and white poinsettias accented by satin streamers.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Michael Rosser, and bridesmaids Mrs. Dennis Robertson and Patricia Rehse wore identical gowns of floor-length red velvet with empire waist. They carried cascade bouquets of red and white poinsettias. Flower girl Linda Stipe, sister of the groom, carried a white basket filled with red and white poinsettias.

Brother of the groom, Warren Stipe, was best man while another brother, Gary Stipe, and James Sanfilippo acted as ushers.

Approximately 75 guests attended a reception given at the home of the groom following the ceremony. Among the guests were Mrs.

Lois Hoffman, of Newberg, and Mrs. Frances Stipe from Lorain, Ohio, both grandmothers of the groom.

The former Miss Rosser, a 1969 graduate of Vernonia High School was employed by Tektronix in Beaverton prior to her marriage.

The groom attended Sunset High and Oregon Technical Institute. He is presently serving with the Seabee's in the U.S. Navy.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon coast and Lincoln City, the new Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stipe are at home in Oxnard, California where the groom is attending Navy Seabee school at Port Hueneme.

New Years Eve Wedding Rites Unite Hartzell - Hancock

Poinsettias and Holly decorated the Vernonia Evangelical Church New Year's eve when Claracy Ann Hartzell became the bride of Everett (Butch) Hancock in a candle-light ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartzell, longtime residents of Vernonia. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Hancock of Troutdale, Oregon.

Rev. Jack Carlson, pastor of the Evangelical Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a snow white empire peau-de-soie gown enhanced with long puffed sleeves of French sheer nylon. A finger tip tulle veil was highlighted with a velvet bow at the crown. She carried a white Bible with white streamers topped with a cynbidium orchid. For some thing old she wore a cameo which was a gift given her father by the mayor of the Isle of Capri when he was stationed there in 1944.

Maid of honor Nancy Hartzell, sister of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of lime green flocked broadcloth. It was highlighted with a white bow at its empire waist and bell sleeves of lime chiffon. She carried a nosegay of lavender daisies. Kathelene Hartzell, sister of the bride, wearing a short lavender dress like Nancy's, attended the guest book.

The best man was uncle of the groom Thomas Hancock of Portland. The bride's brother, Raymond, and uncle, Ralph Sturdevant both of Vernonia, served as ushers.

The reception was given by the bride's parents at their home. It was decorated with the bride's colors, green and white, with streamers meeting over the refreshment table.

The three-tiered cake decorated with white roses with a touch of green on the leaves, topped with the traditional bride and groom, was served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ralph Sturdevant. Coffee was served by Mrs. Richard Baker and punch served by Mrs. Elmer Goodman, friends of the newlyweds.

The bride, who has lived in Vernonia all her life, graduated from Vernonia High in 1968 and is now employed by Electronic Specialty as a relay calibrator.

The groom graduated from Reynolds High in Portland in 1966. He also attended Eastern Oregon College and Mt. Hood College of Education. He is now a security officer for Metropolitan Security.

They are making their first home in Portland.

VEA Meeting Held Jan. 11

The Vernonia Education Association held their January 11th meeting in the teacher's lunch room of the Washington Grade School. The minutes were read and approved and all bills were read and payment approved.

A report from the Teacher Evaluation Committee was given by Coleen O'Neil. Quite an extensive study has been made by the committee and further study is forthcoming. A lengthy discussion followed concerning the now existing evaluation form and possible changes. Coleen O'Neil moved we appoint a teacher-principal-supervisory committee to draw up some possible evaluation forms and procedures to be presented to the association at the February meeting.

President Glenda Jones appointed Ginger Johns, Marcia Sanderman, and Ward Nelson as a nominating committee to prepare a list of nominations for the 1972-73 year's officers and to present it at the next meeting.

Ward Nelson and Alvilda Hearing were appointed to plan the spring dinner meeting at which installation of next year's officers will be held. It was decided by motion that the dinner meeting would be held out of town this year. Tentative dates are April 28, May 5, or May 12.

Copies of the present constitution and a list of suggested revisions were passed out for the associations inspection early in the meeting. Later, Chris Boyle, member of the Constitution Revision committee went over each area to be revised. Further changes were suggested from the group. Members were asked to look over their copies and let the committee know any other changes that could be made. Another report will be made at the February meeting.

Higginbotham Family Had Vietnamese Guest

Miss Thuy Tamh, from Saigon, S. Vietnam, roommate of Heather Higginbotham, both sophomores at Pacific University, spent Christmas vacation from December 18 to January 9 with the Ralph Higginbotham family.

They enjoyed learning about her country and customs. She prepared Vietnamese meals while here.

She is in the U.S. for four years, studying with a scholarship from her country. She may return to Saigon this summer to visit her family: 5 brothers and two sisters.

Heather Higginbotham went to Seattle for New Years weekend to visit her fiance's relatives. She saw much of Seattle.
