

OSU Schedules HS Open House

Oregon State University has scheduled open house Saturday, Jan. 20, for high school and community college students who are interested in attending the university in years to come. Parents and teachers are invited also.

The all-day orientation program will focus on academic offerings and career opportunities. Half of the schools and departments will outline their offerings in the morning; the other half in the afternoon.

General sessions are scheduled throughout the day on admissions procedures and requirements, college costs, housing, financial aid, advising, counseling, honors program, summer term, and ROTC.

The registration charge for those attending is $3 per person, according to Dr. J. Franz Han, director of new student programs.

Participants may pre-register in advance by mail or on Open House day in the OSU Coliseum from 8:30 until 9 a.m. when the opening meeting begins.

HONOR SOCIETY members at VHS provided the manpower for sacking treats which were distributed by Santa Claus at Washington Grade School's annual Christmas program last evening.

CHURCH NOTES

Bible

A warm welcome is extended to all to attend the following services:
Sunday School - 9:45 a.m.
Morning Worship - 11 a.m.
Evening Service - 7 p.m.
Wed. Prayer Meeting - 7:30 p.m.
Those needing transportation to church please call 429-3363.

An adult Bible Study is held every Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Snook. They are studying the book of Revelation. It is informal and open to all.

The Bible Church would like to wish everyone a very blessed Christmas. "Let's keep Christ the center of it. Happy Birthday, Jesus."

Evangelical

The entire church has been looking forward to the Arterburn Weidman wedding to be held this Saturday at two in the afternoon. May God's richest blessing rest upon this young couple as they begin their married life together.

With a "stand-in" superintendent leading Sunday School, those attending will gather at 9:45 for an hour of studying God's Word. The message at the eleven o'clock worship will be "The Scandal of the Stable."

There will be vesper service at four Sunday afternoon in preparation for Christmas. All are welcome to bring their family to the church for an hour of quiet Christmas music and meditation.

Next Tuesday through Thursday is the time for the first church retreat to be held at the coast. Ted Hill will be in charge of the Wednesday night prayer and Bible study.

From all of the folks at the Evangelical Church "We wish you a blessed Christmas 1972."

Baptist

"RealLife! Experience RealLife by Living the Spirit of Christ in Faith and Conquest."

That's what the members of First Baptist Church will experience personally and offer to others in 1972-73.

Jesus spoke of RealLife in John 14:6 when he said: "I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." To Jesus RealLife was an awareness of his fellowship with God and his humility before God and man. It was doing what Jesus knew must be done, refusing to let anything stand in his way of accomplishing his goal and being willing to make the supreme sacrifice for his cause.

The purpose of the RealLife Conference is two-fold, according to Pastor-evangelist Roland Behnke. First of all the "outcome for the Christian should be a deeper Christian life which leads him to witness in a significant way of Jesus as the way, the truth, and the life. And then "for the non-Christian this emphasis will mean opportunity to hear, understand, and experience the real life Jesus spoke of."

Clear, concise, convicting messages of RealLife will be presented each evening at 7 p.m. starting Tuesday, December 26, and ending Sunday evening, December 31. The public is cordially invited to attend this conference.

Christian

The Christmas caroling party will start at 7 p.m., Friday, December 22, with devotions and refreshments following at Arlene and Russ Vinyard's home. Due to the caroling
