The meeting date has been changed to the first Monday of each month.

Spring Term Installation Held by Rainbows

In an impressive installation ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Masonic Temple, Miss Rhonda Persyn was seated as worthy advisor for the spring term. Acting as installing officer was Miss Sue Garner, outgoing worthy advisor.

Miss Garner was assisted by Carol Nelson as chaplain, Debbie Banta as marshal, Ronda Smith as recorder and Ward Nelson as musician.

Officers seated with Miss Persyn are as follows:

Worthy associate advisor, Kathy Osgood; charity, Patty Cone; hope, Evan Persyn; faith, Jill Beamish; recorder, Sharon Smejkal; treasurer, Debbie McLean;

Chaplain, Mary Etheridge; drill leader, Debbie Bergerson; love, Nancy Reynolds; religion, Kacey Haney; nature, Stella Marxer; immortality, Dana Andrus; fidelity, Sandra Leonard; patriotism, Lynette McLean; service, Elita Morford; confidential observer, Cheryl Dunaway; outer observer, Noel Sturdevant; musician, Beverly Starr.

The boys from the Eugene DeMolay chapter, under the direction of their dad advisor, Richard Roblyer, were here to perform the crowning ceremony.

Miss Garner was presented with a gift by the Assembly as a token of appreciation for her service during her term. Also the Assembly gave Mrs. Alice Smith, retiring Mother Advisor, a remembrance gift.

Miss Persyn also introduced her parents and family, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Fisher of Salem and special friends, Miss Sue Husband of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. George Robbins of Vernonia. Miss Persyn announced her motto for the term: "Begin Today on Thoughts of Tomorrow." Her flower is the iris and her colors are purple and white. These were used in the decorations along with attractive pieces of driftwood and moss.

Her project for the term is raising funds for the Heart Fund which will begin February 12.

Several vocal selections by Renee Reck, who was accompanied by

Ward Nelson, were entertainment for the afternoon and the installation concluded with the benediction by Cliff Norwood.

Refreshments were served in the downstairs dining room with Mrs. Larry Garner, Mrs. E.J. Osgood, Mrs. John Beamish and Mrs. Don Bergerson as dining room committee, and Mrs. Chet Fisher, Mrs. Cliff Norwood, Mrs. Bill Tomlin and Miss Patricia Fisher on the serving committee.

Vernonians Visit at St. Helens Lodges

Dorothy Sandon, Cora Lange and Irma Chance attended the regular meeting of St. Helens Lodge. Lesta Garner was also a visitor.

While the ladies attended the above meeting, Harry Sandon attended a meeting of the Masonic Lodge in St. Helens.

The Grand Master was present to present 50-year jewels to three of Harry Sandon's friends.
