Marge Trahan Visits Family

Marge Trahan flew to Colorado Springs, Colorado where she spent two weeks visiting with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Hamm, Amy and Sara. While there, they visited Cripple Creek, an old mining town where they saw a drama "The Star Crossing" at the Gold Bar Room Theater in the Imperial Hotel. The auto races and the Gold Cup motorcycle races were much enjoyed. Vince who races took his mother on a ride on his cycle.

They visited the Garden of the Gods where they dined with the JC's in an open air building, ate out of tin plates and drank from tin cups, while entertained with live music and a show put on by the JC's.

Mrs. Trahan met with the children's babysitter, Mrs. Jenkins, who had also babysat for Matt Dillon's (Jim Arness) children a few years ago. "A lovely person whom I'll never forget," she remarks.

The highlight of the trip was a family birthday celebration for Mrs. Trahan and her granddaughter whose birthdays are the same day, July 12. They all dressed up to enjoy dinner ending with a butterfly cake. It was reported Amy was five but the other age was omitted.

Plans are being made for a get-together of all persons who attended the Camp 8 Caboose and Cookhouse schools. It will be held during the "Old Timers' Picnic," August 19.

Those who would like to attend or would like more information may contact Donita (Brisson) Robertson, 524 West 11th Street, Medford, Oregon; June (Atkins) Ray, Bud Atkins or Dorothy Sandon, all of Vernonia.
