Plan Told By OSU for Fees

Oregon State University students will be able to pay their tuition-fees in three equal installments during each term starting this fall.

The deferred payment plan was developed to help students and families better meet the rising costs of higher education, university officials said.

Students who wish to use the deferred payment plan - rather than the usual lump sum payment at the start of each term - will pay one-third of their tuition-fees at registration; another one-third three weeks later; and the final third a month after that.

Fall term deferred payment dates, for example, will be Sept. 26, Oct. 15 and Nov. 15.

There will be a $3 charge for deferred payment students to meet the extra costs of cashing, accounting, etc. involved each term, according to Hugh F. Jeffrey, director of business affairs.

The university-wide $25 deposit required to cover breakage, losses, etc., must still be paid at the start of fall term, Jeffrey emphasized. So must parking permit charges, student health insurance, etc.

Tuition-fees make up the bulk of the higher education charges, however, and these may be spread out in the future, he added.

Tuition rates for 1973-74 were announced July 23 by the State Board of Higher Education. They are $136 per term for Oregon resident undergraduates ($8 per term more than last year); $530 a term for non-resident undergraduates ($49 per term increase); and $223 per term for graduate students ($13 per term increase).

Fees (health, building and incidental fees for activities, athletics, etc.) are the same for all full-time OSU students - $42.50 per term.

NEWS & VIEWS

John Knowlton
Vince Davis of Beaverton found Vernonia's Jamboree weekend to be a friendly occasion indeed Sunday when he was the first place finisher in the annual Jamboree Golf Tournament held at the Vernonia Golf Club.

Davis netted a one under par 71 in the sun-drenched 18-hole tournament and was knotted with five others for the top spot. But by virtue of having the lowest Callaway handicap (3), he was able to take first place honors and pocket the $50 gift certificate that went to the top finisher.

Larry Borst eagled the last hole to tie a member of his foursome Sam Beardsley for second place. Both Larry and Sam had Callaway handicaps of six and they split the combined second and third place gift certificates. Paul Nelson and Ulus Dillard did the same with the fourth and fifth place gift certificates and John Stennick overcame nine penalty strokes to take sixth place.

The tournament, one of the biggest and most popular of the year, accommodated some 53 participants, 14 of whom ended up with a prize of some kind. Six of those winners tied at 72. Sam Spicker playing to a scratch handicap took seventh place and just edged out Dave Siedelman, Dan Fletcher, Chet Slovic, Joe Magoff and Fred Feltner.

The 13th and 14th place prizes went to the lowest Callaway handicappers who netted 73. They were Albert Schlottmann and Jean Stennick. Those who netted 73 but did not receive a prize were Jack Wendling, John and Willard Rohrback, Dot Knowlton, and Carol Turner.

The next tournament action is scheduled for this coming Sunday, Aug. 5, when the Vernonia Men's Golf Association plays their second home-and-home match with Sunset Grove at Vernonia Golf Club. The locals won by a narrow two point margin in the first match and all members are encouraged to play in this Sunday's match and help retain the revolving trophy.

Tee off time is set for 8:30 a.m. Also, August 7 is the monthly dinner night for the Tuesday night Men's Club. At last Tuesday night's golf session, John Knowlton rolled in the longest putt on number one, Sam Beardsley got KP on number four, Larry Borst was eight feet away for KP honors on number seven, Dan Fletcher took KP on number eight and Dick Aldrich slammed out the long drive on number nine.

Rainier's Twi-Light leaguers played for trophies last Thursday at Vernonia and by nightfall two trophies had been won but the coveted low gross trophy was still in doubt. Jack Wendling and Ken Gregory each shot a 77 to tie for the low gross hardware. They will play off later to see who packs it home. Otis Maddox won the low net trophy for a 68 and Dale Fisher took the low net trophy for the high handicappers with a 70.

The Equalizers regained the lead in the National League team play by three strokes over the Long Shots. Either team could still grab the second half title in the final week of play.

Homeowners and renters claiming a refund must file a claim with the Department of Revenue between January 1, 1974, and April 15, 1974.

Academy Nominations Now Being Accepted
Senator Mark O. Hatfield, R-Oregon, announced today that he is accepting applications for nomination for appointment in 1974 entering class of Cadets in the U.S. Air Force Academy, the U.S. Naval Academy, the U.S. Military Academy (West Point), and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy.

To qualify for the competition, an applicant must be unmarried and must have reached his 17th but not his 22nd birthday by June 30, 1974. The minimum educational requirement is a high school diploma; however, high school seniors assured of graduation by June 30, 1974 are eligible to compete.

Senator Hatfield emphasized that the competitive nomination method is employed in the selection of nominees. Using this method, ten nominations are submitted to each academy based on the applicant's high school scholastic and extracurricular activities as well as employment record (and preparatory school or college record, if applicable), letters of recommendation, and the results of the College Entrance Examination Board tests. This method, Hatfield continued, is the fairest possible means of selecting Oregon's finest young men.

Applications and additional information may be obtained by writing to: Senator Mark O. Hatfield, Old Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C., 20510.

Renters May Get Refunds

Mack said, "In order to better inform the several hundred thousand Oregonians who will qualify for these refunds, the Department will regularly issue information through the news media. This information will explain details of the program and responsibilities of the taxpayers. We are also working on other methods of communicating the message so that as many people as possible will file applications."

"Renters should be aware that they too are now eligible to apply for property tax refunds," says Charles H. Mack, director of Oregon's Department of Revenue.

"For the first time renters are included in a tax relief program," Mack adds, "but they must show receipts of money they paid in rent during this calendar year of 1973 when they file applications for refunds after January 1, 1974."

The tax relief program passed during the closing days of the 1973 legislative session, permits renters with an annual income of less than $15,000 to claim a refund of $50 to $245, depending on their income and the amount of their rent. Homeowners earning less than $15,000 will be eligible for $100 to $490 depending on the amount of their taxes and the amount of their income.

"We are concerned," said Mack, "that some renters who move during the year may have difficulty providing the required evidence without knowing the need at the time of moving. We are alerting them now to one of their responsibilities and requirements."

Renters must attach a copy of a rent certificate to their tax refund application that shows rent paid during 1973. Landlords are required by the new law to provide this form at tenant request. The Department of Revenue will make this form available to landlords later this summer.

Mack says, "If you are moving now, before these new forms are available, or have already moved, you should go back to your former landlord and request a receipt or a statement with the following information: 1) Landlord's name and address; 2) Landlord's social security number; 3) Duration of the rental period during the 1973 calendar year; 4) the amount of the rent; 5) The landlord's signature; 6) As the tenant, your name, social security number, and current address. The Department of Revenue will accept this as a valid rent certificate."

Homeowners and renters claiming a refund must file a claim with the Department of Revenue between January 1, 1974, and April 15, 1974.
