Annual Picnic Held At Yadons

Pacific Northwest Bell invaded Vernonia on Sunday, September 9, when ex-co-workers of Mrs. Yadon, gathered for a day of fun and feasting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Yadon.

Thirty-two people came for the event which has been an annually planned get-together for the past four years, and many of the original group were in attendance.

It was especially gratifying for Mrs. Yadon, to have so many turnout. She retired in February and does not get to see some of the people very often.

Among those attending were: Bev Dahlstrom, Portland, Buz Payne and wife, Jackie, Portland, Mrs. Peggy Rosling, husband Gene, children, Doug, Dean and Dawn, Mrs. Sherry Williams, husband Arnie, children Danny and Michelle, Doug Hodson, wife Connie and son

Shawn, Gresham; Mrs. Marlene Davidson, husband Bob and son Matthew, Miss Patty Bally, Joanne Ryan, Mrs. Sally Starr and husband Milo, Mrs. Judi Teeters and son Chad, Berniece Swanson.

They are all Portland residents except for the Hodsons. Other guests were Mrs. Kaye Bolliger and son, Scott; Mrs. Dee Bateman, Mrs. Kathleen Miller and daughter, Debbie, all of Vancouver, Washington, and Bill Filter and son Kevin from St. Helens.

All who attended remarked what a lovely area Vernonia is and expressed a desire to be a resident of such a beautiful place. Two of the couples are seriously looking for acreage in the area.

The annual picnic will be held in Vernonia next year.

U of O Opens Doors For Fall Term, 1973

The University of Oregon opens its doors for Fall Term, 1973, on Sunday, September 16. Predictions, based on admissions, summer registration of freshmen, and experience in forecasting returning students, are that Fall Term enrollment will reach between 15,500 and 15,600.

If the predictions are realized, enrollment will be higher than the 15,432 enrolled for Fall Term, 1972. That was the highest enrollment in the history of the University.

September 16 is the start of New Student Week, a period of orientation followed by registration on Thursday and Friday, September 20 and 21. Classes start Monday, September 24.

While regular Fall Term classes are due to start September 24, the University has had classes in session since August 27 when the Law School started its new semester schedule.

The Law School is the first and only unit of the University to adopt the two-semester year. All other colleges, schools and departments of the University operate on a three-term year.
