

SAWDUST

Last Thursday, the Bachelor Cooking Class made applesauce and apple cakes to be eaten at the Lion's Club benefit.

VHS's illustrious typing teacher, Gary Geist, was stung by a bee last Wednesday. The unfortunate insect died soon afterwards.

Betty Steele, sophomore and 1973 graduate Earl Abercrombie are engaged to be married.

VHS has acquired a new student; her name is Betty Miller and she is a junior from Hillsboro.

Mrs. Louise Walker, Public Health Nurse comes to Vernonia along with all of the County Service Officers, every Wednesday.

Gordon Crowston has been substituting as the milk machine by passing out milk during the noon hour, because the milk machine is broken.

The senior candy bars arrived over the weekend for sale by the class of '74. Due to the high cost of chocolate, cream and almonds the company has raised the price from 50 cents to 60 cents instead of cutting the size of the bars.

Ken Enneberg's coil wire mysteriously disappeared from his Jeep last Monday.

Both cross country meet and volleyball game with Catlin Gable Monday, was cancelled by Catlin Gable because they didn't have enough cross country members.

Journalism Class Debates "Banana"

"Have you ever wondered how to spell the word banana?" The Journalism class got into an uproar Tuesday afternoon with half of the class on one side and half on the other side. Even the second-year Journalism student a "Senior" was on the wrong side. "Can you imagine?"

After much debate, Mrs. Hearing got down a dictionary, looked up the word and showed it to the "Senior" who replied, "It's wrong!" The dictionary didn't give a second spelling either so the student didn't even have a chance since the beginning.

Next, as if that wasn't enough, the "Senior" started a discussion on another word and by the same procedure he lost again. Mrs. Hearing and this particular student spent approximately fifteen minutes on two words.

At the end of the day, at least the students learned how to spell "banana" and that there is only one approved way to spell "all right." Now all Mrs. Hearing has to do is convince the student, which is, by the sound of things, going to be a little more than a teaching job!

Good Old Halloween Just Isn't The Same

"What does Halloween mean to you?" When questioned, several high school students said it means "time to break out your rotten eggs, tomatoes, and firecrackers to throw on Halloween night." The grade school students said it was "time to trick-or-treat." The adults said "it is a time when you are interrupted every five minutes by a kid who wants candy, or going with the kids so that the big ones don't scare them to death."

It used to be when a kid did something on Halloween nothing happened. But with the way repair prices are today the kid might not only pay for it but may end up in jail too. A lot of the blame should go to those parents who brag about what they did as kids. They are actually influencing their kids to do the same or similar things.

The police try to keep order but there just aren't enough of them to do it.
