cribe a special missionary training school located in Brooklyn, New York; the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society sponsors this school, called Gilead. Applicants are accepted from all parts of the world to take this five-month training course and at the completion of this concentrated period of study, graduates are sent to lands all over the world where the need for kingdom preachers is greatest. A graduate of Gilead, the speaker, Mr. Malespina, will tell of the trials and joys he has found in his assignment, following the theme 'Blessing After Gilead.'

Just before his death on earth Jesus said, "I have conquered the world." (John 16:33). How Jesus conquered the world and how all true Christians will be able to do this also will be discussed during a study of the November 1st "Watchtower" article "Victory Over the World Without Armed Conflict" immediately following the public talk meal on Sunday, December 2 at 10 a.m., at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 49 Texas Ave. For further information, please contact Jim Milton, 429-6975

Evangelical Church Will Hear Rev.

The Rev. Clifford Good, missionary under appointment to Taiwan, will speak at the Vernonia Evangelical Church, Sunday, December 2, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Good are under appointment by World Gospel Mission, an interdenominational organization with approximately 240 missionaries and associate missionaries in 15 areas around the world, with headquarters in Marion Indiana.

Cliff has had a life-long association with World Gospel Mission since his father has for many years served on WGM's homeland staff, with the present title of Vice President in charge of Business Administration. While a sophomore in high school, Cliff was saved during a revival campaign in his home church in Marion, Indiana.

Cliff attended Cascade College, Portland, Oregon, for three years and then graduated from George Fox College, Newberg, Oregon. An athlete in high school and college, he enjoyed the privilege in 1969 of being a member of a Christian basketball team which toured Latin America. While attending Westr n Evangelical Seminary, Portland, where he received a B.D. degree, Cliff learned the secret of total surrender to God and experienced the infilling of the Holy Spirit. During his seminary years, he served as youth director and assistant pastor at Lents Evangelical Church in Portland.

Less than one month before Cliff was born, and in the same hospital in Portland, Charlene Wildermuth began her life. When she was four, her family went to Japan to serve with Oriental Missionary Society. At present her father is Personnel Director at OMS headquarters, Greenwood, Indiana.
