CARD of THANKS

TO THE PEOPLE OF BIRKENFELD
Last Monday night, it wasn't just a fire—it was a need. It wasn't what was saved or done—it was how people responded to that need.
It was like a big family, getting things done without reservation, without thought of self or danger to yourselves. We saw people working side by side in perfect harmony, not thinking of differences between them, only of the need of someone else. There was compassion, there was thoughtfulness — people forgetting they had bad backs or other weaknesses, just thinking of the need of two people in trouble.
It reminded us of days of old when people looked to each other for their needs. They got involved in each others problems, and their needs were met.
There are no words or deeds that can repay you for what you did. There is no amount of thanks we can give you to repay you, because it wouldn't be enough. All we can say is, "Thank you, people for being involved and bringing that love for one another that is so hard to find in this world today."
We thank God for such people as you—every single one.

Church Notes

Adventists

Famine aid totaling $20,000 is now en route to Ethiopia, as a result of participation by widely separated Seventh-day Adventist organizations, according to a report received here by Mrs. Ruth Veal, director of the local Community Service Center of the church.
Mrs. Veal said the aid came in the form of $5,000 contributions from the Adventist Church in Sweden, in the Netherlands, in the Middle East and the Seventh-day Adventist World Services (SAWS), in the United States. In addition SAWS is sending vitamins and medicines to the stricken area.
According to the report received by Mrs. Veal some 1.5 million people have been affected by the famine, caused by the most severe drought to have hit Ethiopia in recent times.
Mrs. Veal reported that the local center had shipped nearly 100 boxes of clothing to the SAWS Warehouse in Watsonville, California in addition to supplying local needs.
Used clothing totaling 248,000 pounds has been sent from Watsonville and another SAWS warehouse in New York City to Angola, Tanzania, Lebanon, Peru and Brazil according to Mrs. Veal.

Weekly Bible Studies will be Tuesday evening at the Russ Vinyard home and tonight at the Bill Kretschmer home, both starting at 8 p.m. Wednesday evenings following the 7:30 p.m. choir practice at the church, a Bible Study will begin at 8:15 p.m. "Fifth Quarter" will be after the game tomorrow night, with a singing group entertaining. At this writing the location isn't definite, so listen for it to be announced.

Vernonia Eagle

THURSDAY, FEB. 14, 1974 5

warfare between God's forces and those opposed to divine rulership is described in detail in the Bible book of Revelation. This scriptural account makes it plain that complete victory for God's side is assured. It is no mere quaint story; this victory will come just as surely as there is a divine ruler!"
Woodley then counseled the Witnesses, "With soundness of mind and confidence in God's victory we can victoriously survive the approaching end. Meanwhile we want to keep busy helping others to gain accurate knowledge of the truth of God's word, so they too may share in the blessings of victory by Jehovah."

The Sunday morning highlight of the gathering was the ordination by water baptism of 60 new ministers.
The regular meeting of the Vernonia Congregation will be resumed this week, it was announced by James Milton, local presiding overseer.

Witnesses

"Be Confident of Divine Victory" was the title of the keynote address of the weekend regional assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at Portland's Wilson High School.
Vernonia delegates were among the 1,853 who heard E.C. Woodley, Northwest overseer for the group, declare: "The coming
