Witnesses

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society has scheduled a four-day district convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in Portland July 11-14.

Lawrence Kraushaar, convention manager, said 15,000 delegates are expected for the meeting to be held at Civic Stadium. Kraushaar said the Portland convention is one of 85 assemblies scheduled this year in the United States and Canada. Included is a total of eleven conventions planned for Spanish, Italian and French speaking delegates.

James Milton, presiding minister for Vernonia, added that 30 area congregations will serve as hosts for the convention and arrange for rooming accommodations and travel requirements. "Hundreds of thousands of persons are looking forward with eager anticipation to the series of 'Divine Purpose' District Assemblies of Jehovah's Witnesses," Milton said.

The program is designed to explain to the conventioners what God expects of the human family in their daily lives and personal conduct as Christians.

The highlight of the convention will be the public discourse on the subject "Human Plans Failing as God's Purpose Succeeds." It is scheduled for Sunday, July 14 at 3 p.m.

Convention headquarters has been set up at 3390 S.E. Milwaukee Avenue in Portland.

June 12, 1974
Mr. Steve Gaskill
Trojan Homes, Inc.
P. O. Box B
Rainier, OR 97048
Dear Steve:

In accordance with your request, our office contacted Mr. Ron Eshelby, Columbia County Building Inspector, in regard to apparent misunderstanding or misinterpretation of state laws governing mobile homes and mobile home dealers. We informed Mr. Eshelby of the following facts:

- Mobile home dealers are licensed by the Motor Vehicles Division and must post a substantial bond (five times the amount posted by building contractors). This larger bond is necessitated by the wider scope of activities involved in a dealer's business (selling, trading, transporting, installation, servicing, arranging financing, placement of insurance, etc.). Please note that this license and bond includes installation of mobile homes. Mobile home dealers are not required to secure a building contractors license.
- Senate Bill 73, passed by the Oregon State Legislature in 1973, specifically authorized the Director of the Oregon State Department of Commerce to adopt a statewide building code, which supersedes the building codes of cities and counties. Therefore, local building permits are not required for placement of mobile homes, either on private property or in mobile home parks. Jurisdiction of mobile home parks and plan approvals for construction of mobile home parks is under the State Health Division.
- There are no state regulations or laws governing anchoring or "tie-down" of mobile homes.

Recent State of Oregon figures reveal that 63% of the people of Oregon are unable to purchase housing costing $21,000 or more. The housing crisis is critical. The State of Oregon and progressive county officials recognize that mobile homes provide the only answer to the growing problem of housing. More than 50% of all new single-family dwellings erected in the U.S. this year will be mobile homes.

We feel confident that Columbia County officials will want to join the many other forward-thinking state and local officials by providing for placement of more mobile homes in your area.

Very truly yours,
KENNETH W. JOHNSON
