

Oregon Gospel Sing Time Set For Vernonia

The Oregon Gospel Sing Time is coming to Vernonia Saturday evening, September 21, at 7 p.m. at the Vernonia Grange Hall.

The public is invited to come and admission is free.

This will be a Gospel Concert with the following groups participating: The Pixler Family Singers; The Knights of the Kingdom; The Sonlites; Lloyd and Erna Wood.

These groups are well known in Oregon, especially in this area. Each of these groups have taken part in Gospel Sing, Church Services and Prison Services. The Knights of the Kingdom and Lloyd and Erna Wood are from the Vernonia area. Oregon Gospel Sing Time is produced by Oregon Gospel Ministries, Inc., of Hillsboro.

Oregon Gospel Ministries is a religious non-profit corporation which ministers with various Gospel Groups and individual people who are willing to get into the Lord's harvest field, such as outside programs, prisons, churches and anywhere there are people who need Christ. This ministry is non denominational. They welcome all people to come out and take part and enjoy themselves.

The President of Oregon Gospel Ministries, Glen and Elva Rice of Hillsboro and vice-president Truman and Barbara Knight of Vernonia give everyone a personal invitation to come out.

Family Moves Here From West Virginia

TIMBER ROUTE—The Baker family is new to the community. All the way from West Virginia.

Harry and Arly Emmons took a jet plane for a quick trip to Reno, Nevada.

C.J. and Essie Nance spent a very good time with all of their family both in Salem, Bend, and at Elk Lake.

Juanita Steele's grandson Jason spent some time in the hospital lately. He's feeling better now.

Donna Leer, sister of Lester, stopped by Vernonia from Seattle. She is considering living in Wenatchee, Washington.

Thanks to Art Miller, the little yellow car belonging to Kate Coates is once again running.

Dorothy is recuperating at home after her recent hospital stay.

Frank and Ellen Elgus have lived in and around Vernonia for 52 years. They have three boys, and five grandchildren. They enjoy taking trips, working in their church, helping others, and he still paints peoples houses. "Been doing it going on 40 years." One of his hobbies is woodworking. Virginia says "my painter husband is my hobby."

California Visit Enjoyed

TIMBER ROUTE—Nellie Schmedlin has been visiting her son in Oakland, California and has had a most enjoyable time.

Rudy and Francis Lizza along with her father and their son, are the very busy proprietors of the Sunnyside Service. They keep busy 7 days a week. Coming from California two years ago, they like Vernonia "just fine."

Josephine Ammerman recently returned from a trip to Eastern Oregon.

Zola Christianson has lived around Vernonia since 1917, says "I wouldn't want to live anywhere else." Living in the same house for 46 years, she is the Mother of Archie Christiansen, he works for the county driving a truck. She loves and enjoys the daily companionship of her two grandchildren. Some of her favorite hobbies are embroidery, crocheting, tatting, sewing and quilting.

The Ken Parry's moved to Forest Grove.

A new family moved into Sharbonda's home. The Sharbondas have moved to Eastern Oregon with their 11 horses. They picked up the last of their belongings Saturday-a mule. Taking over their home is Louis and Barbara Constans from Milwaukee. They have a daughter and son. Up on the hill where the Constans's live, coyotes howl night and even day lately, according to Mrs. Constans and "We've had the first frost, it got my squash. I've been so busy getting settled, canning and the berries we've been picking recently have been luscious" she said.

Tom Budge, Vernonia's very capable 4-H leader, father of 6, is helped by his wife Judy. They enjoy fishing at the coast. "We have our own boat. I don't like it
