SOMETHING FOR EVERYBODY

Carnegie says he has made forty-two men millionaires.

Wood fibers are strongest near the center of the limb or tree trunk.

The salary of Lieutenant general of the United States army is $11,000.

Sleeping sickness has been known in West Africa for one hundred years.

In Norway the average length of life is greater than in any other country.

It is estimated that 60,000-horse power can be easily developed from the St. Lawrence river.

An Alabama man, ninety-seven years of age, says he has eaten hot biscuits regularly all his life.

The Yarmouth and Lowestoft herring season has yielded 800,000,000 herrings, which sold for $5,000,000.

Formaldehyde is used in meat exported to England, and the government is making investigations as to its effect on the health of consumers.

Yale students are teaching more than one hundred New Haven boys in classes under the direction of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Rice stands first in the list of Siam's agricultural products. The average yearly export of rice for the last five years has amounted to 948,389 tons.

The Belgian minister of the colonies has decided to organize an expedition to go to the Congo to study sleeping sickness and to seek means to cure it.

Mrs. Cornelius Zabriskie is chairman of the committee which proposes to build a woman's clubhouse in Brooklyn at a cost of $100,000. At a mass meeting held the other day in the chapel of Packer institute stock subscriptions to the amount of $20,000 were received. The largest single contribution was that of the Brooklyn Women's Club, which guaranteed $7,500. The building will not be started until the committee has the full $100,000.

One of the marvels of the age is the extreme cheapness of ocean carriage. The modern tramp steamer could carry her cargo one thousand miles for 9d a ton and make a profit of 10 per cent. A modern tramp steamer could leave England and go around the world by the two capes, and even then carry cargo at £2 8s a ton. These are marvelous figures, and they show to what extent the world is indebted to the carrying trade.—Cassier's Magazine for May.

The population of southern California, according to Colonel Drake, who is the world's foremost statistician in such matters, can not fail, in a very short time, to exceed twenty million souls, for there is a human breed there which multiplies with the miraculous rapidity of Belgian hares. When Long Beach had a population of only a little more than a thousand there sprang up in a few months, from the smallest beginnings, more than nine hundred real estate agents.

As a specimen of how practical the Japanese are with their knowledge of western science and determination to deal with disease, they have levied a tax on every household to produce two rats every month. A fine is imposed if the rats are not caught and produced at the time of inspection. Every rat is examined, and if found to be plague infected the house from which it came is to be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected. Twice a year every house and shop has to disgorge all its effects and be completely cleaned out. The things only go back after sanitary inspection.—Java Times.

Perhaps the reason the English are so far behind in flying is because they worked the whole thing out long ago, and are sick and tired of it, for John Milton, in "Britain to the Conquest," says that the youth King Harold, last of the Saxons, strangely aspiring, had made and fitted wings to his hands and feet. With these, on the top of a tower, spread out to gather air, he flew more than a furlong; but, the wind being too high, he came fluttering to the ground, maiming all his limbs; yet so conceited was he of his art that the cause of his fall was attributed to the want of a tail, as birds have, which he forgot to make.

At the banquet given in her honor after the Nobel prize had been awarded to her Miss Selma Lagerlof, the Swedish author, spoke of the pleasure such a festival would have given Fredrika Bremer. She said all old maids should shower blessings on the memory of Miss Bremer for showing them how to attain an independent place in the world and an object in life. She then pointed out the change which had taken place in public opinion since the days of Miss Bremer. Women were no longer set aside and looked down upon, but had gained for themselves education and standing. Among women nowadays were found graduates of universities, doctors of philosophy and medicine and heads of great business houses, hospitals and schools.

It is probable that no other commodity ever came into such varied use within so short a period as India rubber. First employed practically for footwear and other waterproof apparel, rubber has come to be employed in electrical insulation, hose pipes for the conveyance of water, steam, air, and so on; pneumatic and other tires for all sorts of wheeled vehicles, balloons and the planes of aerial machines, innumerable articles for the comfort of invalids, household conveniences, and what not. Thus far, rubber has never come into use to an important extent for any given purpose to which it is not still devoted; in other words, its advantages are so marked in many uses that, when once introduced, no substitute can be found for it.—Cassier's Magazine.

Wearied with his everlasting hiks, the Wandering Jew stopped to rest.
"What's the use?" he exclaimed. "I can't keep up with old man Weston to save my life! He's forty miles ahead of me and going like the wind!"
Running a trembling hand through his flowing beard, he proceeded to heap a few choice maledictions on the day of his birth.

What's the Use?
"You don't take your doctor with you when you travel now, I see," said his confidential friend.
"No," said the financial magnate; "he's too tyrannical. Besides, it's just as cheap to have him fix me up after I've come back from one of my long trips."
