Weeding time is here again.
A clean up of the streets and yards would improve the appearance of the town in general.

So every man in Nyssa has his bottle. It is well that the neighbors didn't know it or otherwise they would have visited more frequently. But then newspapers makes mistakes at times.

The Burns News says in part:
"A. W. Lafferty, nominated for Congress in this district, is a comparatively young man, full of brains and energy and will make a representative that will be heard from in Washington to the benefit of this district.

Last week the sad news of Senator Dolliver's death came as a surprise to the country. He had been ill but a short time and his death has caused a spirit of depression throughout the land. He was the head of the insurgent party of Iowa and was a shining light in the ranks at Washington.
The Senator won his renown by his able fight against the Payne-Aldrich Tariff bill. He won for himself the respect of all class and and the confidence of his co-workers.

Home Rule Amendment sounds good doesn't it. Stop to consider what a municipality says to the country from which it draws its support when it says: "I will attend to the moral influence of this community." We must consider what is behind us when any question of building or enlargement comes up and why should the people beyond our city limits be denied to say what they will at the polls on a question so important to everyone of them as prohibition. The Home Rule places in the hands of the few the destiny of the many. The town people have not the worry or trouble of the saloon that the country people have. For instance: a boy is sent to town and finds time he avy on his hands and seeks amusement after his errand is done. He goes where he is welcome, where there is a genial spirit and so he wanders up to the bar without thinking of the consequences. We say vote NO on Home Rule, No. 328, even if you are not in favor of prohibition. Read pages 75 to 81 inclusive of pamphlet of measures for the arguments pro and con.

Election time is advancing and the people will soon go to the polls to say what they want to on the vital questions of the day and the men that are to represent them for the ensuing term of office. They said at the primary who should be the party representatives and among them we find assembly and anti-assembly men in both parties and we shall abide by the decision of the people. They knew well the qualities of the men only the strong were chosen. We are asked to stand for only the anti-assembly man, be he either Republican or Democrat. A true Republican cannot bring himself to the point where he could vote the other ticket and again call himself a Republican. We should always be loyal to party principals and men on the same side of the political fence. Now that the candidates are named let the contest be between parties rather than factions. Only a couple of weeks remain before election and it is time that the matters of import-were looked into and both sides carefully considered. One can't afford to be ignorant as to the measures of the day especially in Oregon where people are considered the furthest advanced along political lines. Be prepared to vote your ballot and to vote it right according to your conviction.
If you don't know the why and wherefore of a bill don't vote for or against it as you may be defeating a good cause. On Tuesday November 8, you will be called on to say if you want good roads, prohibition, and some other things.
Be ready to say yes or no.

THE PACIFIC MONTHLY'S SPECIAL INTRODUCTORY OFFER

The Pacific Monthly, of Portland, Oregon, is a beautifully illustrated monthly magazine which gives very full information about the resources and opportunities of the country lying West of the
