CHINESE LAUNDRY DOOMED.

Nation-Wide Crusade Against Them Is Proposed.

Chicago—The doom of the Chinese laundry as it exists today may be the result of a nation-wide organization soon to be inaugurated. A crusade of education is to be carried on through newspapers and magazines warning against the unsanitary conditions. The movement had its inception in Chicago and it is expected the first effects will be felt here through an ordinance which soon will be reported to the city council providing stringent regulations for all establishments engaged in supplying clean linen.

The ordinance originated with the health department, and at once received the co-operation of the Laundry association, which obtained the incorporation in the ordinance of clauses even more stringent than those originally drafted. The ordinance has been favorably reported by the committee in charge and its passage is practically assured.

It is declared the statistics of the health department show that epidemics of scarlet fever, diphtheria and other diseases were more prevalent in districts where Chinese laundries were thickest, and these laundries have been the cause of spreading disease.

CENSUS FIGURES FOR PORTLAND AND SEATTLE.

Washington — The population of Portland is 207,214, compared with 90,426 in 1909, and 46,385 in 1890. The increase from 1900 to 1910 therefore is 116,788, or 129.2 per cent, as compared with an increase for the preceding decade of 44,041, or 94.9 per cent.

The population of Seattle is 237,194, an increase of 156,523, or 194 per cent over 80,671 in 1900. The population in 1890 was 37,834.

Census Director Durand said that until the complete returns for Oregon are published, showing the population of Portland's suburbs, a just comparison of the population of the two cities could not be made. Seattle has annexed its suburbs; a very considerable population, similarly contiguous to Portland, is outside its corporate limits.

The revision of the Portland figures resulted in the elimination of 15,745 names. The number taken from Seattle's count was 11,188.

HEIRESSES TO WORK LAND.

Rich Illinois Girls Take Up Montana Homesteads.

Aurora, Ill.—Miss Winnie Benschbach, whose father, William Benschbach, of Princeton, is one of the wealthiest men in Central Illinois, and Miss Kathryn Smith, daughter of W. I. Smith, also a wealthy resident of Princeton, have taken up land claims in Montana and next April will leave their homes and go to the wilderness, 16 miles from Roundup, Mont., to work their homesteads.

Each girl will fall heiress to a fortune of close to $250,000. They have each filed on 160 acres and will live in log cabins for 14 months. Their claims adjoin and the two cabins will be but 30 feet apart. Both girls say they understand farming and will superintend the work on their claims.

THIEF CUTS OFF GIRL'S HAIR

Makes Away With Tresses But Leaves Jewels Untouched.

Seattle — Leaving untouched valuable jewels and watches which lay on her dresser, a miscreant whose identity is unknown, to the police, entered the room of Miss Bertha M. Parks, 19 years old, at her home, 1216 East Alder street, and while she was sleeping, with her sister, cut from her head long tresses of deep auburn hair, and escaped with his plunder.

Miss Parks immediately became hysterical and a physician had to be summoned in an effort to quiet her. She had not been disturbed in the least, yet her auburn tresses, nearly three feet long, were gone. Her sister had not heard any one in the room, but heavy tracks made by muddy feet were visible on the carpet.

Three Brick Blocks at Coquille.

Coquille—The Merchants bank building, the last of three brick blocks to be erected here this summer, is finished and tenants are moving in. The building is double, the bank occupying the corner room. The banking room is finished in solid mahogany, except the wainscoating, which is of Alaskan marble, as is also the tops of the dealing counters. The pillars at either side of the main entrance are 18 inches in diameter, and of Red Beach granite, and the steps are of Tennessee marble.

Wallowa Sawmills Close.

Wallowa—The Bear Creek Lumber company has closed it mill here and will not saw again until spring. The Nibley-Mimnaugh mill closed down last week. Both companies will operate their planers during the winter sufficiently to supply the demand for finished lumber. The Bear Creek company will make extensive improvements to its pond and both companies will put in a large supply of logs, insuring an all-summer run.

Cows That Answer Two Purposes.

Portland — M. S. Shrock, deputy dairy and food commissioner, has returned from Wallowa county, where he held three dairy meetings in Enterprise, Josephine and Wallowa.

"There is quite an awakening of the dairy industry in Wallowa county," said Mr. Shrock. "This has been primarily a beef stock country. We found that the people are inclined to use what we call a dual purpose cow, namely, a cow that is as good for beef as milk. They can never be successful in dairying in this way."

Elkhorn Vote Was Expensive.

Salem — County Clerk R. D. Allen has figured that at the recent election the county paid at the rate of $9.43 a vote for the votes cast in Elkhorn precinct. The total cost of the election in that district was $113.20, and there were but 12 votes cast, of which Governor-elect Oswald West received 10 and Jay Bowerman received none. One of the other votes was a prohibition vote, and the remaining one was a Socialist vote.

MADERO HAS 6,000 MEN.

Well Armed Mexican Rebels Marching on City of Monclova.

Douglas, Ariz.—Francisco I. Madero, the leader of the Mexican revolutionists, is now reported not wounded, but instead, marching on the city of Monclova, in the state of Coahuila, at the head of a well-equipped army, said to number as high as 6,000 men. News of Madero's being wounded is said to have been sent out by Mexican officials to discourage the revolutionists.

This was the report sent by revolutionists across the border into Douglas. A local business man, who is a revolutionary sympathizer, received the data in documentary form from friends in Mexico, and the dispatch was given out for publication.

A small printed document published at Chihuahua shows the local situation there and the purported movements of Madero. This paper was smuggled in. Since October 31, it is said cowboys have engaged in smuggling arms in from the border, where they were received from San Antonio. All the funds were supplied by the Mexican junta and by Madero personally.

It is said that both the mounted troops and infantry of Madero carry modern repeating rifles of 30-30 caliber. Madero's mounted soldiers are considered particularly efficient. The foot soldiers were recruited from the cotton belt, where it was known for a long time that the peons were ready to take up arms.

According to the reports received in Douglas, Madero's first movement was a bold stroke. With his men he marched to the great ranch owned by General Terrazas, now appointed governor of Chihuahua, at Sans Ostenes, where he captured 400 horses. Madero and his soliders then moved into the mountains. Here, with his troops he will be able to stand off the government army for an indefinite period, if the claim of the revolutionary sypathizers is well founded.

BAD ELEPHANT EXECUTED.

500 Grains of Cyanide of Patassium Kills Huge Beast.

New York — It took 500 grains of cyanide of potassium, the most deadly poison, to kill Gypsie Queen, a trick elephant, executed for the murder of her keeper, Robert Schiel, on October 20. Less than one grain is sufficient to kill any man and the first convulsive symptoms supervene almost before the victim can set down the glass from which he swallows.

Gypsy Queen swayed backward and forward, flapping her big ears, for ten minutes before she showed the least uneasiness. It was 44 minutes before she was pronounced dead.

The poison was given in three pailfuls of bran mash, in which had been sprinkled 100 capsules, each of five grains of cayanide. The elephant had been starved for 24 hours and ate greedily. At the end of ten minutes she shivered in all her bulk of 7,500 pounds, her knees weakened, her trunk grew rigid, she rolled her eyes and finally fell.

In the next two minutes she get up four times, struggling against the chains that bound her. At the end of 20 minutes her breathing was imperceptible, but 44 minutes after her first swallow she blinked when her trainer passed his hand before her eyes.

That was the last sign of life.

SCHOONER SINKS, FOUR LOST

Crew Set Out in Two Dories and One Reaches Sitka, Alaska.

Juneau, Alaska — Four members of the crew of the power schooner Sea Light, which was wrecked near Cape Ommaney, at the southern end of Baranof Island, are believed to have been lost in a storm which swept the North Pacific.

The Sea Light, which had eight men in her crew, was wrecked five days ago. The men set out in two dories, four men in each boat. One of the boats arrived at Sitka with the report of the wreck of the schooner and the probable loss of the men in the other dory. When last seen the missing dory was being tossed by a heavy sea and appeared to be sinking.
