GUMPTION ON THE FARM.

Never too old to yearn.

The wages of gin is death.

If the elevator to success is stopped—try the stairs.

Nobody without some pepper in him is worth his salt.

Don't call on your neighbor just to borrow something.

The doors of opportunity are marked "Push" and "Pull."

Tell your wife how good her cooking tastes and what good butter she makes.

Don't envy the man who is riding around in an auto until you know how big his mortgage is.

Now is a good time to nail loose boards on the barn and sheds and to replace broken glass in the windows.

Time may be money, but the average man would rather give you two hours' talk than lend you a quarter.

Cultivate the friendship of every farm animal, from the dog to the horse. The man who has not friends of this kind is not apt to have many elsewhere.

If we would devote even one hour each Saturday morning to the little postponed fixing-up tasks, how much we might add to the general appearance of things!

"Kind lady, I'm just merely trying to keep

Soul and body together!"—he did look thin;

But the lady did neither smile nor weep,

As she handed the tramp a safety-pin!

A Long Island farmer heard a noise one night, and thinking that the wagon spoke he went out to investigate. He discovered that the wagon was tongue-tied, and that he had merely heard Long Island Sound. Hearing at another time a commotion near a piece of timber not far from the beach, and fearing that it was smugglers or pirates, he went out to frighten them away by having the hickory bark. The hickory failed, but he found that the dog-wood succeeded. However, it turned out to be simply an ocean squall.

In the olden times the farm was a general loafing place in the winter. The farmer loafed at the store or smith shop; the cows loafed in the stable, as the milk pails proved; the horses loafed and grew soft and fat in their stalls, and the very hens loafed on the roost waiting for spring before beginning to lay eggs. A wonderful awakening has come! The modern farmer is on the job every day of the winter; the cows are doing their best to provide plenty of fifty-cent butter, and the cheerful cackle of the hens on these bright December days attests the fact that they are inspired by the twentieth century determination to make good at forty-five cents a dozen.

Arcadia Rumblings

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cable a bouncing boy, Nov 20

Wm. McKibben was in Idaho on business last Saturday.

M. Townsend of Ontario was in this vicinity last Friday.

Mr. Flemmings' new bungalow is nearing completion, and is fitted up with every modern convenience.

Sam Henry of the Wilson well drill crew was seen in Arcadia Sunday. Sam says pretty slow drilling this weather.

The coyote hunters and dogs may be seen between daylight and dark and sun up chasing thru the weeds around the country and quite often bag their game.

The coyotes caught to date are 65.

The Beck Bros sale yesterday owing to unfavorable weather was disappointing to them.

The Boydell Mercantile Co keeps only the best makes in Boots and Shoes. Our White House and Buster Brown, by Brown Bros Shoe Company. For Gents, Ladies, Misses, Boys' Youths, and Infants cannot be beat. We also have a line of B. B. B. Quality, Style and Moderate Price combined in our shoes.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Winfield S. Hawkes announces himself as a candidate for Director from district number one (1) of the Black Canyon Irrigation District for the election to be held Dec. 13, 1910.

Mr. Hawkes was one of the first to secure the favorable consideration of our project by Sec. of the Interior Ballinger, has been one of its constant promoters, was on all the Committees of Organization from the beginning, has been a water-user under the needs of his fellow settlers and what is desirable in methods of construction, and can be trusted to serve all interests faithfully. He solicits the votes of his fellow homesteaders.
