Senator Clapp told his negro audience, in Washington that hardships are conducive to success. If this were wholly true our colored brothers would be at the top of the heap.

LEGAL NOTICES.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Malheur county.

George L. Phillips, plaintiff, vs.

J. Boydell, W. B. Hoxie, M. and G. Wydenes, Alfred Schreiber, A. A. Glenn, J. F. Reece, H. R. Sherwood, John Ennis, George Green, Robert van Gilsen, D. M. Taggart and Sanford Emison, defendants.

To J. F. Reece, defendant, greeting:

In the name of the State of Oregon: Under and by order of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Malheur county, issued by Hon. Dalton Biggs, Circuit Judge, on July 11, 1911, that service of summons by publication thereof for a period of not less than six weeks be made upon you in the above entitled action, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action, on or before the expiration of the period for publication, being the first day of September, 1911, and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take judgment against you as demanded by the complaint on file here, reference to which is here made and the same is made a part hereof.

The said action is brought to obtain a judgment on a note described in the complaint for the sum of seven hundred dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from October 23, 1907, attorney's fees seventy-five dollars, and costs and disbursements of this action; and attachment of property belonging to said defendant, J. F. Reece, has been made on lots four and five in block thirteen in the Original Townsite of Nyssa, Oregon.

C. C. WILSON,

Attorney for Plaintiff.

Dated at Nyssa, Oregon, July 12, 1911.
