Charley Hackney has sold the Meadows Eagle to A. B. Lucas, cashier of the Meadows bank. Mr.
Lucas is an old newspaper man, having made his money out of the newspaper business to go into the banking business. We have not heard from Charley yet, to learn whether he got the Lucas bank in exchange for the Eagle, but no matter how much or how little money Hackney may possess, no man in Idaho is richer in the friendship of the newspaper fraternity of the state. He has been president of the Press Association for the past four years, and no man in the state of Idaho has worked harder or sacrificed more time and energy to make that organization a success, both financially and socially, than has Hackney. The Journal wishes you success, Charley, wherever you may locate.

Editor Bain, growing tired of the continuous announcements of railroad building, without any railroads coming, announces in his last issue, with reference to the late effusions of the Hill people:
"A railroad built on paper. Another guess at what the railroads are going to do." Those are the headlines of this article dated at Portland, and which the Argus re-publishes for just what they are worth, and without any frills.
Mr. Bain has exactly the right idea, for the only time you are entirely sure of a railroad, is when you can see the cars running.

Last week a fellow charged with assault and battery in Boise, asked for a jury trial, when it was discovered that the charter of the city does not permit a trial by jury.
This being in direct violation of the constitution of the U. S. and of the state of Idaho, puts the Boise charter on the bum. The case was dismissed, and it is expected that hereafter every old drunk who is brought before the police magistrate will demand a jury trial.

The Payette people have just completed their cold storage plant, in time to handle this season's fruit and melon crops.

ANNOUNCEMENT A NEW FIRM

WE WISH TO ANNOUNCE to the people of Nyssa, that we will open a new Grocery Store in the Himler Building this week.

We will handle Groceries Exclusively, and will give all our time and attention to this line.

We think the time has come when people who want to buy dry goods will go to a Dry Goods store; when they want hardware they will go to a Hardware store; and when they want groceries they go to a Grocery Store.

It will be our aim to do an honest and square business, and anything that goes out of our store must be entirely satisfactory. If you get anything from us that is not right, we will be just as glad to refund the money as we were to take it. Don't be afraid to tell us when anything is not satisfactory, for we want this to be YOUR STORE.

WILSON BROTHERS THE GROCERS

LOCAL NOTES.

Arthur and Mrs. Cook returned home Friday from a trip Baker county, where they visited Mr.
Cook's parents, and spent a couple of weeks back in the high mountains. They took a pack outfit and went back into the mountains where fishing and hunting was at its best. Mrs. Cook canned several gallons of huckleberries. Arthur shot a fine two-years-old "wildcat," and they had mowich the rest of the trip; they caught all the trout they could eat and brought out a mess for the Journal man and his family. These, together with the jar of huckleberries Mrs. Cook brought us, have kept that "wild taste" in our mouth ever since.

J. O. McVey visited the Payette bench the latter part of last week and says the Nyssa section has the best of it. He says the Gem State people admit that this country is as good as theirs and when they make such an admission it is a sure indication that ours is the best country on earth.

Miss Grace Lilly of Omaha, who owns a five-acre tract of orchard in the Oregonidaho tracts across the river, stopped off here recently, and went over to see how her trees were thriving. She expressed herself well pleased with her purchase, this being the first time she had seen the land.

Mr. Emaheiser, sales agent for the Oregonidaho Orchard company, stopped off at Nyssa between trains last Wednesday, while on his way to Spokane from the east, and reports everything lively in his line of work. He says the five-acre tracts are the most popular sellers.

W. W. Smith has had some excellent clean-up work done on the streets the past week. Having secured permission of the street and alleys committee, he kept one man on the clean-up work steadily.

The county surveyors and road viewers were in Nyssa the latter part of last week, on business connected with some work in the Owyhee community, where a lane was to be widened and the thoroughfare adopted as a county road.

C. V. Mitchell and F. C. Frye of Nyssa attended the meeting of the Malheur County Fair directors at Ontario last Wednesday.

mer has kept them in excellent
