Letters from Ralph Reed, formerly one of the popular young folks of this place, bring the news that he is working on the Gusman ranch, near Jordan valley.

Miss Martha Overstreet has been home from Caldwell for two weeks on account of illness. She resumed her studies at the College of Idaho the first of this week.

It is with a feeling of great relief that we hear that Mrs. B. F. Farmer is slowly recovering from her recent very serious operation in Boise. The doctors assure Mr. Farmer of her ultimate recovery.

H. Walters returned last week from Portland, where he had shipped a car of fat sheep. Mr. Walters reports that local chinook winds have struck in various counties north of us, the hills at Pendleton and about Union being denuded of snow.

H. Walters moved the tenant's house on his ranch on the North side over to his big South side side ranch, where he intends to use it as an addition to his house there. When those header crews get to work Mr. Walters will need a big dining room.

The tracklayer crew has been busy several days cording in ties in the gaps in the road where no bridges or culverts have been put in. They also are busy clearing away debris left by last summer's cloud burst. The steady tapping of the spikes was resumed during the last day or so, however.

The telephone crew was camped near the new railroad last week. They are busy arranging the telephone wires under and over the track. In some places they laid the lines through the pipes in the culverts. For a time the Kolony was cut off from the outside world, although able to communicate with one another in the neighborhood.

E. H. Brumbach and another citizen from the Big Bend are in Salem in the interests of the

Do You Comply With the Butter Law?

If not, read the following law and have your Butter Wrappers nicely printed, with your name and weight of butter thereon.

CAUTION!

CHAPTER 179, SECTION 3.

"It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to sell, offer or expose for sale, any short weight butter within the State of Oregon. All butter sold or exposed or offered for sale in rolls, prints or squares within the State of Oregon, shall be plainly marked: 'Eight ounces, full weight,' sixteen ounces, full weight,' 'twenty-four ounces, full weight,' or 'thirty-two ounces, full weight,' and ever roll, print or square sold, offered or exposed for sale shall contain the number of ounces marked thereon; and any person, firm, association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than six months; or both such fine and imprisonment."

The Journal can furnish you with good parchment Butter Wrappers, printed according to law, at $1.25 for the first hundred and 25 cents for each additional 100. This includes stock and printing. We are printing for the best buttermakers in this valley, and would like to add your name to our list of satisfied customers.

You can send your order by mail with the amount. Write plainly and state the size you wish.
