

NYSSA AND VICINITY

A Brief Resume of the Daily Events in a Live Town
What Your Neighbors Are Doing.

All Millinery at Big Reductions.—Caldwell.

Miss Sue Wheeler is visiting friends at Caldwell.

Men's $1.25 two-piece Underwear now 90c.—Caldwell.

Wm McConnell came in from the sheep ranch, Wednesday.

Misses and Small Women Skirts this season's styles, $3.50 to $4.00, for $2.50.—Caldwell.

Mrs. C. H. Smith of Cambridge, Idaho, was a guest at the home of Mrs. Grover Keele Saturday.

George Hailey, of Ontario, was shaking hands with friends in Nyssa, Wednesday.

Stove Pipe, Dampers, Stoves and Heaters at Hirsch's; you can buy a fine range of him on the installment plan.

Fred Plagar will leave in a few days for an all winter's visit to his old home at Warrensburg, Missouri.

M. F. Albert and A. P. Scritchfield, prominent bankers of Payette, came up Monday to attend the Holden lecture.

J. M. Robertson and Roy Crockett spent several days in the interior this week, going to Kelly's station, near Skull Springs.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Peterson died Wednesday morning and was buried in the afternoon of the same day. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church.

Charles Shane, who recently resigned as foreman of construction work on the new bridge and took a similar position near Vale, has returned to Nyssa, work at the latter place having been suspended.

Girls' and Boys' Sweaters, regular $1.25 line, 90c.—Caldwell.

W. C. Tensen, who has been visiting his brothers here the past two months, has decided to return to his old home in Holland. Mr. Tensen spent several years here a decade or more ago, and naturally he still has a warm feeling for Nyssa.

J. B. Newport, of Notus, one of the directors of the Black Canyon district, was in this vicinity Wednesday, posting notices for the election of a director to be held December 9. Running out of gasoline for his auto, he put into Nyssa for a fresh supply.

Girls' 35c, 40c and 45c Vests at 23c.—Caldwell.

W. R. Wills, a business man of Waitsburg, Wash., visited his brother, G. B. Wells, of the City Dray line, several days this week. At present he is at Boise, but will return shortly and give Nyssa another looking over.

Men's $1.50 Sweaters, $1.15.—Caldwell.

Vacant houses are at a premium. If Nyssa grows much more in population, somebody will have to build some more dwelling houses. At present Thos. Carriek and W. W. Foster are building residences for their own use, but there is no place for the stranger within our gates to get in out of the wet.

Cecil Caldwell went over to New Plymouth last week to assist in making cheese at the factory there, but stayed only during a rush of work. He says the New Plymouth factory is doing a big business but is not up to the Nyssa factory in the latest methods of turning out the product.

W. U. Sanderson was up from Ontario Monday.

Ball-Band Rubbers? Then call on Spier's Man and Boys' Store.

Union Suits and 2 piece Underwear, the kind that feels comfortable, at L. Spier's.

Scott Brundage, of Payette, was in Nyssa this week and bought the Lawrence hay crop.

Have you seen the new Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Styl-Plus Suits and Overcoats at L. Spier's?

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Orrell, of Payette, were guests of their son, Lewis Orrell, and family, Sunday.

Those Chippewa Work Shoes at L. Spier's at $3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and $4.50, are world beaters. Every pair guaranteed.

A new telephone directory was distributed to patrons of the Malheur Home Telephone company's system this week.

First Class Watch Repairing at Hirsch's, where you want to buy your Watches, Clocks and alarm Clocks, because he makes good and wants to see you satisfied with your purchases.

Mike O'Brien, the well known Owyhee rancher, was in town a couple of days this week. Mr. O'Brien recently sold his hay crop $5.50 a ton.

Biggest Bargain of the season in Heating Stoves, Cook Stoves, Barb Wire and Hog and Rabbit Fence at Hirsch's, whose low prices put him in the lead and keeps him there.

From all indications eggs are going to be eggs this winter, as the price is again soaring and the cry of "ham and" will soon cease to be heard in the land.

Men's Gray Overshirt; $1.40 Shirt at $1.15.

Harry T. Kilgour traveling salesman for Closset & Devers, of Portland, was in Nyssa, Saturday, in the interest of his firm.

Women's Short Coats $1.00.—Caldwell.

Mrs. Chas. Allen and son of Boise and Miss Florence James of Baker were visiting their sister, Mrs. Frank Golden, the first of the week.

Men's Wrist and Gauntlet gloves, regular $1.25, for $1.00.—Caldwell.

Wm. Sexton last Friday sold an 80-acre Carey Act tract on the East Side, to F. C. Berg, of New Plymouth. The consideration was $500. The deal was made through Smith & McManis.

Good heavy Outing Flannel at 10c.—Caldwell.

Mrs. Dennis and Mrs. Duncan will serve tea Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Ladies Aid. A liberal attendance, it is hoped, will be present on this occasion, as it is the intention of the ladies to afford everyone a pleasurable as well as profitable time.

John Clouston, a well-known homesteader of the East Side, is preparing to leave for Canada, where he expects to remain. Mr. Clouston is decidedly optimistic over the future for the Snake Valley and leaves here with regret, and his only reason for doing so is to be with his mother in her declining years.

Johnny Long is now high diver on the water tower.

Big Bargains in Quilts and Blankets at Hirsch's.

P. J. Binkley and wife have returned from a visit to Cambridge.

Button, Button, Button Shoes for Girls and Boys and Men just in at Hirsch's. You know yourself what the quality is and you know that his prices are right.

J. W. Fogle has added greatly to the good appearance of his home property on First street by fencing, leveling the lots and setting out shade trees. Mr. Fogle's enterprise has improved the looks of that whole part of town.

You will be surprised to find what you can buy for 10c, 15c and 25c when you look in our display window at the Golden Rule.

Lined Gloves, Wool Gloves and Leather Gloves at the usual low prices at Hirsch's. A new line of Fancy Gauntlet Gloves just in.

J. McGee and daughter, who have been visiting Mr. and Jack Corey, at Dr. Sarazin's farm, returned to their home at Fruitland today.

The Golden Rule store has added a variety counter and you will find almost anything you need commonly carried on variety counters and at variety prices.

S. H. Thompson and a government inspector of rural postal routes, went out to Owyhee Wednesday to look over a proposed route through that section.

The crowd is buying Hirsch out of Overshoes and Rubbers because he carries the Red Ball Band Rubbers, the best made for the money.

Charley Thompson was in town Thursday from his home on the Boulevard. Charley has been seriously ill and this was his first visit to Nyssa since August.

Harness and Leather sold at low prices at Hirsch's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall have returned from Fruitland to again make their home here, much to the satisfaction of many Nyssa friends.

Fine Fancy Wool and Dress Shirts for Men at Hirsch's.

Professor Holden stated in his lecture at the opera house, Monday, that if a preacher would mention the word "corn" every once in a while in his sermon, he could keep his congregation awake. Rev. Walker will preach on "Corn and Religion" next Sunday evening. His subject in the morning will be "The Farm and Its Chief Product." Everyone cordially invited.

Thomas Lindsey, of 500 in the Bottom last Sunday, after which he came Monday.

Joe Divish and Henry brought Mrs. Harris' geese. Mrs. Stewart's turkeys are a big raffle at Fruitland. Sounds like Thanksgiving.

L. J. Meeker is quite sure of the effects of a hemorrhage, which he had last morning. Mrs. Meeker, who is near and in Boise, has been summoned and is expected.

Good Crops on High Dry

L. L. Crocker and C. G. who have places on the Dead Ox were in Vale this morning proving up on their land. Compton says they raise crops of all kinds this year. Crops run from 12b to 14b to the acre and they did not water them any. Corn and grain crops were also good. Several of them have fine alfalfa. They also raise sterita and it does well. Should be sowed thick. Land is some 350 feet above river where it will be a lot before they expect water. Settlers have commenced digging and are well satisfied with results.—Ontario Argus.
