DOINGS AT ARCADIA

[Too late for last week]

Mr. and Mrs. George Ransom visited the Gamble Island last Sunday.

E. B. Butler, Sr., received word that his aged mother died last Wednesday afternoon at Woodbine, Iowa.

Some one said spring was coming by the sign of marble playing. Why we have seen water sacks soaking already.

Next Sunday evening there will be a meeting at the school house, held by Latter Day Saints. Everybody is cordially invited and a large attendance is wished.

Don Conklin called on Arcadia friends last week.

Mrs. J. C. Fleming spent last Monday with Mrs. Thos. Coward in Ontario.

C. V. Richardson has taken his sheep to Indian Valley.

Tom Drost visited Arcadia friends Sunday.

George Ransom returned from Boise last week, where he has spent the winter with his daughter.

Al Thompson left Tuesday for Indian Valley, Idaho, where he is employed for the summer. His family left Wednesday to join him at Midvale.

[News of the present week]

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Coward of Ontario visited at J. C. Fleming's Sunday.

J. M. Lackey and family autoed out to their ranch Sunday.

Harry Butler and wife moved to Ontario last Wednesday.

George Ransom and wife moved to Payette last week. Mr. Wallace of Nyssa has rented their place.

President Hale and Elder McKendrick gave excellent sermons last Sunday evening at the school house. The solos rendered by Mr. Hale were greatly enjoyed by the audience of about 80 people.

Mrs. Charles Bullard is able to sit up after being confined to her bed for over two months.

Enjoying the weather and good roads in their auto, were E. B. Butler, wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wills. They had a nice trip over in Idaho.

There is an effort being made to have the Mormon elders at the school house next Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

Oregon Land Traded For Office Building

The 200,000 acres of land included within the famous Oregon military road grant owned by the Oregon - Western Colonization company, has just been traded by L. W. Hill and W. P. Davidson of that company for the 22-story Transportation building located at the southwest corner of Harrison and Dearborn streets in Chicago. The building is valued at $3,500,000. It is considered one of the finest office buildings in the city of Chicago. The land was acquired some years ago from a French syndicate for the purpose of colonization. The larger percentage of it is located in Crook county, Central Oregon.

Wanted

To rent a sewing machine for family use. Apply at Journal office.

J. H. Bitner and son, H. S. Smith and W. M. Davison formed a party which went out to the Peter Stamm auction sale in Lem Wilson's Overland today.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davison, Attorney P. J. Phillips and Willis Megorden were a party of business visitors to Vale today. L. E. Wilson's big Overland car provided the means of conveyance.

All aboard for Ontario. Nyssa-ites will be at the county declamatory contest tomorrow (Friday) night 100 strong, a special train being chartered for the occasion, and all are confident that Nyssa's contestant, Miss Ruby Morehead, will win honors for herself and the cup for Nyssa.

OREGON WOMEN FORM FIRST POLITICAL CLUB; WILL VOTE FOR MAN, NOT PARTY

The first woman's club ever organized in Oregon in behalf of a candidate for office, so far as known, was put on foot in Baker County recently, when the "Dr. Smith for Governor Club" became a reality. More than fifty women of Pine Valley, enrolled as charter members, and it was expected that as many more would add their names to the roll within a few days. Pine Valley is ten miles from Copperfield, the scene of Governor West's celebrated raid.

The Baker County women have adopted as their slogan, a continuation of Governor West's policies of law enforcement, and they have espoused the cause of Dr. C. J. Smith of Portland, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, because of his public endorsement of the Governor's work along that line.

At the initial meeting of the Club, Mrs. Maud Brown was elected President, and Mrs. Lucla B. Clemens was elected Secretary. Resolutions were adopted declaring that the women believed in law enforcement, and in continuing the good work so well begun for better social conditions. They declared that they felt certain Dr. Smith would, if elected, enforce the criminal laws of Oregon to the letter, and referred in proof of that to his previous excellent public record.

The object of the organization was briefly declared to be to promote the candidacy of Dr. C. J. Smith for the next Governor of Oregon.

Much interest is attached to the organization of this club, for the reason that it is the first purely political organization of women known to have been gotten together in the State, outside of the organizations, which were bound together two years ago in support of the suffrage movement.

The politicians have for some time been nonplussed as to how best to approach the new voter, and this initial organization seems to confirm the prevailing idea that women will refuse to be bound by purely partisan lines, and will insist on voting for issues and for men, rather than for party.

The women in the new Dr. Smith Club are of every political faith, and regardless of party lines, say they propose to back the man for Governor who they think stands most firmly for better moral conditions.

Locals News of Interest to All

Sing Wo, an experienced Chinese laundryman from Boise, has opened a laundry in the old laundry building across the railroad tracks. Sing says a hand laundry is the proper thing. "Steam laundry too much hot; spoil um clothes. Me heap savee. You put ad. in paper. Tell everybody." Which shows that Mr. Sing Wo may prove to be a progressive citizen.

Mrs. Chas. Bean and son are with E. M. Blodgett while looking for land for a home.

Frank Thomas is in town from Parma.

J. W. Fogle this week further improved his home place this week by painting his residence. The color scheme is terra cotta, trimmed with maroon. Ed Christen en did the fancy work in his usual artistic manner. Mr. Fogle seems determined to do his share toward making Nyssa a City Beautiful if it takes all he makes.

Wm. Sexton has disposed of his interest in the Owyhee store and moved back to Nyssa. He is thinking of tackling placer mining on the Snake and will go down below Huntington next week to look the ground over.

H. D. Birdsall expects to leave soon for Long Valley to take charge of a ranch which he recently traded Nyssa property for. The East Side hotel has been leased to other parties.

Frank Leuck and John R. Pangburn went to Boise yesterday on land business. Mr. Pangburn homesteaded a valuable 120 on the East Side.

The local high school baseball team will go to Apple Valley Saturday to play the team of the Idaho village. The Apple Valley team is said to be composed of fast players, but the Nyssa boys are undismayed, and expect to return victorious.

To Trade

10-acre tract in Boise Valley on interurban. Paid-up water right, all in cultivation, to trade for dry claim near Nyssa. Let us know what you have. Inquire at the Journal office.

H. R. McNee is the only Nyssaite so far to announce himself as a candidate for a nomination at the coming primaries. Mr. McNee is after Dan Kerfoot's job of sheriff, and his petitions are being freely signed. There is one thing certain, if Hank went after a law violator he would bring him in if he could get within range.

A Modern Miracle.

"My wife is an astonishing woman. Is she?"
"I'll give it to you. She told me the other night when I proposed going out that she would be ready in a minute. And she was."

Why send out of town for Printing?

IT'S A TOPSY TURVEY WORLD

"Say," remarked a pioneer farmer to the Journal yesterday, "I believe in that stuff you have been printing about people patronizing their home town and home merchants; that's the only way we can build up a prosperous community, but it isn't as important that the home merchant patronize the home farmer? The other day I was told by a Nyssa firm with which I had dealt for a long time that there was so much butter coming in from Parma and down Fruitland way that I had better find another market for my dairy product. Now, if I had to go to drive to some other town to get rid of my stuff, why isn't it just as convenient to do my trading there? I wish you would 'roast' some of the Nyssa business men."

The Journal doesn't feel like roasting anyone, but it does seem like the Farmers and Business Men's League wasn't organized any too soon.

5 Women Who Said

of years we have been stating that a great many women are taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and it is true. We are permitted to publish extracts from the letters of five women who have received unsolicited relief from their ailments. Convincing?

HODGSON, Me.—"I had pains in both sides that could scarcely straighten up at times. I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I was getting thinner until I submitted to an operation. E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgson, Me.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—"I was in bad shape in both sides and was very nervous. The doctor said was a tumor, and I was to have an operation. A friend advised me to take E. Pinkham's Compound, and I gladly did so. I feel like a new woman."—Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Winona St., Charlotte, N. C.

HANOVER, Pa.—"The doctor advised me to have an operation. I took E. Pinkham's Compound and I was cured. I can do a hard day's work and not feel any pain."—Mrs. HANOVER, Pa.

DECATUR, Ill.—"I was sick in bed for several weeks. I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I was getting thinner until I submitted to an operation. E. Pinkham's Compound cured me."—Mrs. LAURA A. M. STREET, Decatur, Ill.

LEVELAND, Ohio.—"I was very irritable and in pain. I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I was getting thinner until I submitted to an operation. E. Pinkham's Compound cured me."—Mrs. LAURA A. M. STREET, Decatur, Ill.
