R. Gardner, general manager of the Malheur Home Telephone Co., motored over from Ontario Tuesday, to look after affairs and jolly the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Gartrell were guests at the Hotel Western for a few days last week prior to leaving for other parts. Mr. Gartrell was the cook for the bridge crew while it was stationed here.

A Brand New Stock of Calicos, Gingham, Table Linens and other Dry Goods just arrived at Hirsch's.

Little Miss Edna Largent, aged 12, made her first trip away from home alone when she left Monday for a visit with her aunt at Nampa. She will be gone a couple of weeks, if she can remain so long a time away from mamma.

Hurrah for the new stock of fine Ladies' and Girls' Button Shoes and Children's Sandals and Scuff Shoes arrived at Hirsch's; to be sold at mail order prices.

W. L. Gibson started his second cutting of alfalfa this week with a full crew. Mr. Gibson is the first in this section to start and will have a fine, tender bunch of hay for his dairy herd.

Miss Mayme Witte of Wisner, Neb., is visiting with Mrs. C. H. Davison this week. Miss Witte is spending the summer in the West and is visiting several friends in various sections. She spent a week at Nampa before coming here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Leuck are mourning the departure of a little visitor that came into the world for a brief hour, then passed on, missing the merciless fight for existence against unfair odds, that it surely must have faced had it lived. The memory of its transient presence and the lingering touch of tiny, helpless hands will be compensation to the grieving parents.

W. S. Mitchell of Baker, overseer for the Workmen's Compensation Act in Eastern Oregon, was in Nyssa Saturday to instruct industrial institutions here regarding the requirements of the law. He explained the "act" in detail to the management of the cheese factory and others that come within its jurisdiction, leaving as suddenly as he came, evidently satisfied with what he found at this point.
