

NYSSA AND VICINITY

A Brief Resume of the Daily Events in a Live Town
What Your Neighbors Are Doing.

Nyssa needs a bakery
Art Jones was in town from the Owyhee Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Wills is visiting her daughter at Rexburg, Idaho.

City Attorney P. J. Phillips was an interested spectator at the corn show at Ontario.

Frank and Jack Lynch spent several days at Boise last week.

Bruce Duncan, was in Nyssa this week from Jamieson, Or., visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Harry Egan arrived in Nyssa today for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Hon.

Attorney C. C. Wilson combined business with pleasure by attending the celebration and looking after the interests of clients at Vale Thursday.

Miles Cannon was in the city Monday attending to business matters which demanded his personal attention. He left Monday evening for his home at Nyssa.—Weiser American.

Dr. J. J. Sarazin has gone to Boise to take treatment for blood poisoning which developed recently. No serious results are anticipated, but as Nyssa is temporarily without a physician this is an inconvenient time to get sick.

C. H. Davison has taken the agency at Nyssa for the Troy Laundry of Caldwell, which until recently was represented by Harry Sharp. Leave your bundles at Davison's barber shop. Shipments will be made every Wednesday morning, returning Friday evening.—Adv.

H. G. Monce has returned from the Malheur country, where he spent several days looking after his dry farm ranch, which he succeeded in renting for half grain rent. He will soon spend much of his time at Nyssa, where he has a cherry orchard of 2800 trees.—Nampa Record.

Justin S. Lageson, who left Nyssa a year ago to take charge of a shoe store at Oregon City, writes the Journal that he will return to the Gate City just as soon as water is supplied to his land under the Black Canyon, near town. Mr. and Mrs. Lageson have many friends here who will give them a cordial welcome when they return.

E. A. Wheeler, manager of the Troy Laundry Co., at Caldwell, is a business visitor in Nyssa today. Mr. Wheeler is a close observer of affairs and believes that the United States, and particularly the West, is on the eve of an era of the greatest prosperity ever known. He predicts a rapid growth for Nyssa when Owyhee and Black Canyon projects are under water.

J. L. Largent of the Golden Rule store, was a business visitor to Nampa Tuesday.

W. H. Beam of Ironsides was in town this week visiting his brother, J. C. Beam, and trading with Nyssa merchants.

Throwing discretion to the winds, Attorney C. C. Wilson joined the throng which helped Vale celebrate Thursday.

Among the prominent Owyhee citizens who were in town Saturday the Journal noticed E. F. Pratt, H. T. Pratt and H. Walters.

Mrs. Frank Golden had the pleasure of entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. James, of Baker, several days this week.

D. Harold McGrath, of the Statesman editorial staff, was down from Boise Tuesday, on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. E. Hillier.

Miss Alice Wheeler, of Boise, is visiting relatives in Nyssa. Miss Wheeler attended the local high school last year and has many friends here.

Henry Fields has rented the Main street garage building and will put in a concrete floor and otherwise improve it for his private use.

Mrs. W. L. Gibson and Mrs. C. A. Quinn will entertain the L. A. S. with a tea at the M. E. parsonage next Wednesday afternoon, November 13. Everybody invited.

Miss Myrtle Roe of Grand View, Idaho, is visiting the Misses Mary and Ellen Hon. Thursday the young ladies went to Vale to participate in the "Appreciation" festivities.

Harry Goshert, of the Nyssa Hardware store, left Tuesday for a brief visit at Midvale, Idaho, near which place his father has farm property.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Mitchell are the proud parents of a fine baby boy. Being the only boy in a family of five children he is naturally the most important member of the Mitchell household.

The addition to the postoffice building is completed, much to the gratification of Nyssa's popular postmistress. The growth of Nyssa and the establishment of the Owyhee rural route made larger quarters absolutely necessary.

Nyssa had the pleasure of entertaining two eminent judges from the neighboring state of Idaho Wednesday. They were Judge Jesse Albertson, recently elected justice of the peace of one Parma precinct, and M. A. Bates, re-elected to that responsible office in another. Judge Albertson is probably the youngest justice in the state of Idaho.

About twenty enthusiasts, mostly young people on pleasure bent, went to Vale Thursday to help celebrate the result of the county seat contest. Doubtless many more would have gone had not the Pomona Grange corn show at Ontario proven a stronger attraction.

Some miscreant, without fear of present or future punishment, stole nearly all of W. W. Smith's potato crop during that affable gentleman's absence from his farm. From four acres of choice spuds he left Mr. Smith but nine sacks, for which, in view of an approaching hard winter, our ex-marshall is profoundly thankful.

Painters are putting the finishing touches to the bridge which spans a branch of the Snake on the other side of Bridge island. It will soon be open to traffic. The bridge on this side of the island is also nearing completion. The few remaining workers on the foundation will leave in a week and the steel gang expect to complete their labors before the first of the year.

Reuben McCreary, the well known farmer and townsite proprietor, was down from Adrian Tuesday. Mr. McCreary says the people of the Bend are feeling elated over prospects of securing a bridge, the bridge bonding proposition for that purpose having carried by a large majority. Incidentally Mr. McCreary's new town of Adrian will come in for a good sized boom when the bridge is completed.

Masonic Goat Was Busy.

Work in the third degree in the local Masonic lodge brought a large number of members of that order to Nyssa Tuesday night. H. Ward was the candidate and was raised to the third degree. Appropriate speeches were made by H. B. Grauel of Ontario, and I. W. Hope of Vale. An elaborate banquet was served and fraternity and good fellowship prevailed. Besides the local members and the faithful goat the following Masons were present:

Ontario—Harry B. Grauel, W. T. Lampkin, D. B. Purcell, M. E. Newton, W. W. Letson, J. H. Derson, D. P. Dearborn, C. F. Trow, A. F. Tonnington.

Vale—J. P. Houston, R. M. Duncan, I. W. Hope, Zay Hope, Ivan Onakes, C. C. Wheeler, A. P. Goodrich, Mr. Deeneway, Bruce R. Kester, Mr. Nelson, C. H. Tracy.

Nyssa Will Lose Mr. Bitner

Mr. and Mrs. Bitner, who have conducted the Hotel Western the past year and a half, announce that they will sever their connection with that popular hostelry December 1. They have secured a new hotel at Midvale, Idaho, and will take possession as soon as they leave here. It is with regret that the people of Nyssa learn of Mr. and Mrs. Bitner's intention to make the change. Under their management the Hotel Western has been all that could be desired and they possess the rare tact of making friends with the townpeople and the traveling public alike. The Journal and a host of other Nyssa friends wish them success and prosperity in their new location.

M. E. Church Services.

The revival meetings now in progress in the M. E. church are increasing in interest and attendance. Meetings all next week beginning at 7:45 p. m.

Artistically Speaking.

The Mexican word "hombre" (meaning man) is pronounced "umber." Therefore, a "burnt man" is "burnt umber." The complexion, combined with a very dark beard and a regular Mexican nose, might make an effective "burnt umber."
