G. MONCE SELLS HIS NAMPRA RANCH

The long pending sale of the well improved H. G. Monce ranch two miles south of town was completed Monday.
The purchaser, F. C. Smyth, lately of North Platte, Neb., paid Mr. Monce $14,000 cash, $200 per acre, and a bargain at that. Mr. Smyth is a physician and will secure this year's crop. The large orchard is loaded with fruit and promises to yield quite an impact. Mr. Monce still owns some lots in Nampa, and says he has no thought of leaving this section. He left Monday with his family for Nyssa, where he has a ranch and where they will reside for the present. He also has several hundred acres out near the end of Oregon and Eastern railroad track.

ARE WE STUNG? ASK SPUD MEN

Nyssa potato growers who responded to the government's appeal "plant a spud and win the war" are wondering if they have been stung again. Reports of enormous crops are coming in from all over the country and in many sections the tubers are being allowed to rot in the ground, the price being so low that it will not pay the cost of digging. The seed was purchased at high prices, five cents a pound being paid in many cases, and unless there is a market at fair prices local growers will be heavy losers. In the meantime new potatoes are quoted on the Boise market at three pounds for 25 cents.

In California the new crop is already matured, and the supply is said to be far in excess of the demand. As a consequence the market is glutted and it is doubtful if growers will realize the cost of the seed. A dispatch from Sacramento (California) says:
"Eat potatoes and onions, is the plea sent out to California householders Monday by the state council of defense in an effort to save farmers who responded to the patriotic appeal for the production of more foodstuffs from practically total loss on these two edibles.

"According to information coming to the state council from many counties in California, big crops of potatoes are rotting on the ground because of the inability of the farmers to sell them at a price equal to the cost of production.
The supply raised by farmers is heavily augmented by the crop raised in hundreds of towns of the state by home gardeners and by cultivation of vacant lots.

"In Glenn, San Joaquin, Fresno, Sacramento and Yolo counties hundreds of sacks of onions are reported to be rotting in sacks because of the inability of the growers to dispose of them except at a price which they say will be less than the cost of production."

A summary of the July crop report for the state of Oregon and for the United States, as compiled by the bureau of crop estimates, U. S. department of agriculture, is as follows: State—July 1 forecast, 9,350,000 bushels; production last year (December estimate), 8,250,000 bushels.
United States—July 1 forecast, 452,- 000,000 bushels; production last year, (December estimate), 285,437,000 bushels.

BE CANNY

Get that canning impulse.
Make your hoe this summer keep your can opener busy next winter.
Get ready for "canning" season now.
Regrets are the only things ever named in the jars you forgot to order.
Can nothing that can be kept without canning? Dry such vegetables as corn, string beans, navy beans, mature Lima beans, okra, etc.
You can brag about your garden all winter if you have your canned evidence on the dinner table.
Concentrate products, especially soup mixtures, so that each container will hold as much canned food and as little water as possible.
Really there is nothing to canning fruit and vegetables except care, cleanliness, fresh products, jars and heat.—

Insure Your Grain Crop

BECAUSE, During the harvesting season, fires in grain fields are almost a daily occurrence.
They originate from sparks from locomotives, from cigar, pipe, and cigarette stumps and matches carelessly dropped in the field, or by the road side, from threshing engines, and from many other accidental causes.
The question is, can you afford to meet such a loss without insurance?
The HARTFORD special policy is so arranged as to afford coverage, in the following class and cost of same:
In the field on growing grain.
In the field on stacks, or in stacks, and in the granary.

NYSSA AND VICINITY

A Brief Resume of the Daily Events in a Live Town What Your Neighbors Are Doing.

Miss Althea M. Shelton was in town Monday from New Plymouth.
Grade Durham Bull for Sale—16 mos.
old. A good one.—S. H. Ross. j13-3t Thos. Claggett, Ontario agent of the Eastern Oregon Land company, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. Jack Orrell, formerly Gertrude Pounds, of Burley, Idaho, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Pounds.
Jack McConnell was in town a few days this week from the Stein's mountain country, where his sheep are ranging.

Sheriff Ben J. Brown was in town Monday evening, investigating, it is said, reports of recent violations of the law.
County Assessor Carlisle was in town this week interviewing our citizens as to the extent of their worldly possessions.

Seymour Ross sold his herd of dairy cows to Allan Ervington Tuesday and will devote his time and attention to his other interests.
Carl Tittle dropped into town Wednesday morning from Hailey, Idaho, where he finished his sheep shearing tour for this season.

Christensen & Marshall this week brightened up with a fresh coat of paint the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S.
D. Goshert.

Frank Mansell returned Wednesday from his old home in Maryland, where he will make an extended visit to his mother and other relatives.

The protracted meetings held in the tent on Main street by members of the Nazarine church closed Sunday evening and the tent has been removed.
Joe Dutcher came in from the hills Saturday and spent a few days at home. He says the grass is good now and all kinds of stock doing well.

H. G. Monce is harvesting a bumper crop of cherries from his orchard near town. Large shipments are being made to Idaho points. Verily, this year the fruitgrowers are receiving their reward.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shaw are at Salt Lake City on an extended vacation.
They will spend at least three weeks enjoying themselves. E. J. Burrough, who would rather tend store than work, is substituting for Mr. Shaw at the Nyssa Hardware company's store.

Jess Thompson received a telegram last Thursday announcing the sudden death of his uncle, S. D. Thompson, at Albion, Iowa. Beyond stating that the unfortunate man was struck by a train there were no particulars. Deceased was 55 years old and unmarried.

Two breaks in the Owyhee canal near the Daniels place within 24 hours resulted in nearby farms being flooded to some extent. The first break occurred Tuesday and was quickly repaired. Another occurred Wednesday and was repaired before much damage was done.

Henry Nedry, brother of Prof. E. B.
Nedry, went to Vancouver, Wash., last week and showed his patriotism by enlisting in the regular army. Nyssa has just cause to be proud of its large number of young men who have volunteered in defense of the Star Spangled Banner.

Miss Myrtle Nelson of Cambridge, who was a guest of Lucile and Edith Richey last week, returned home Monday. Miss Nelson is a young member of the newspaper profession, being employed when at home in the office of the Cambridge News, which is published by her father, Thomas Nelson.

Jesse Thompson, E. B. Nedry, Arthur Boydell and Dr. Sarazin went to Ontario Monday evening to bring home Edward Boydell, who has been in the hospital several weeks, recovering from injuries received in an automobile accident. He will be able to be out on crutches in a few days and no permanent injuries are feared.

The overturning of an oil stove in the lodging house in the Tensen building Wednesday afternoon caused the sounding of the fire alarm. The department responded with a promptness which demonstrated its efficiency as a fire fighting machine, but the blaze was extinguished without the help of the firemen. The damage was slight.

Farmers along the Shroostring canal are complaining that stock is allowed to run at large in Arcadia precinct contrary to the herd law. Considerable damage has been done both to crops and good nature and the ranchers intend to take steps to abate the nuisance. A black mare, aided and abetted by a jersey colored mule, are the chief offenders.

Cecil Caldwell, who went to Salt Lake last week to join the navy, discovered that he was not built according to the plans and specifications required by the service, being too high up and not wide enough around, consequently he returned to Nyssa and is again attending to the wants of customers at Caldwell's store. But Cecil tried, anyway, which entitles him to a place among the patriotic young Americans.

Mrs. Charles Stoner went to Star Tuesday to visit friends.
The Service garage received a carload of the famous Chevrolet cars Wednesday.

A number of Nyssaites, including P.
M. Binkley and Frank Ervington, went to the circus at Payette Wednesday.

Albert van Gilse is down from Boise on a visit to friends. His father, Robert van Gilse, is a former mayor of Nyssa.

A dainty daughter came to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boydell last Tuesday. She weighs eight pounds and has been named Ethel Mary.

A large packing house is being built at the Idanha orchard in anticipation of the big prune crop in the history of the orchard. George and Fred Green have the contract.

The ice cream social held on the spacious lawn, at the McDonald home Tuesday evening was a delightful affair, despite the warm weather. The large crowd which attended quickly caught the social spirit and a feeling of fraternity was in the air. About $50 was added to the treasury of the Social Circle of the Presbyterian church, under whose auspices the social was given.

A. H. Kingman, honorary mayor of Kingman Colony, was in Nyssa a short time Wednesday. Haying operations are progressing satisfactorily, he says, and the labor supply being equal to the demand, notwithstanding the bumper yields for which the Colony is famous.
Mr. Kingman is the official weather observer for the Nyssa station and reports that the hottest day of the year was last Sunday—104 in the shade.

Nyssaites at Big Bend

(Vale Enterprise)
At a meeting held at the Wade school house Tuesday evening of last week the initial steps were taken toward the formation of a Red Cross society. Dr.
Sarazin of Nyssa presided and about thirty memberships were received.
Officers elected were: Guy Johnston, chairman; Mrs. Guy Johnston, secretary; Ralph Robertson, treasurer.

The church service Sunday evening was of a patriotic nature, Rev. Harper talking on patriotism from several view points. Miss Esther Spier at the piano and Chandler Harper on the violin and Mayor Wilson, all of Nyssa, in a short talk added greatly to the interest of the meeting.

One Body Found

The body of Glenn McCluer, who was drowned in a branch of the Snake river near Fruitland on Monday night with Raymond Hooker, has been found.
Search for the body or Hooker is being continued.

WARNING TO THE PUBLIC

My attention has been called to the fact on several occasions, that the local distributors of the Chevrolet Motor Car have made statements that the motor in this car contained a Buick Valve in the Head Motor. A comparison of the two cars should satisfy the public that this is untrue, and made simply to deceive the public into thinking they were receiving Buick quality.
In addition I will quote from bulletin No. 285 issued by the Buick Motor Co.
Buick Valve in the Head Motors are built entirely by the Buick Motor Co., in its own shops at Flint, Mich., expressly and solely for the Buick motor cars, and are not obtainable for any other make of automobile.

CARAGE BUILDING IS BEING ENLARGED

The Nyssa garage and blacksmith shop is being enlarged this week to meet the demands of a growing business, the proprietor, Ray Cook, finding that more room is absolutely necessary.
The building is owned by W. B. Hoxie, who is superintending the work of construction. A brick addition 24x44 is being erected in the rear and a room for office purposes will be added to the front. Nyssa is growing right along and Roy is bound to keep up with the procession.

Fire Sweeps Huntington

Fire at Huntington early Wednesday morning burned Crimmins' barber shop, DeWitt's cigar store, Clark Adams, cigars and billiards; J. P. Wood, office; half of the Huntington Mercantile, dry goods and groceries, all on the block facing the depot. The fire started in the barber shop. The water supply was low until connection was made with the railroad system. The estimated gross loss is $25,000. There was no insurance except on the Huntington Mercantile.
