When Germany really wants peace it will make a noise like democracy.

Free speech! In this easy going republic how many crimes have been committed in thy name!

You may lead any woman to talk, but you cannot necessarily compel her to think. It all depends.

Being married to German princesses seems to be numbered among the perils of contemporary monarchs.

Germany's way of discouraging strikes is to send the strikers to the front and put them in forlorn hopes.

Those big guns on the western front do not hit so hard as the plain unvarnished facts about kaiserism.

Of course, Germany will furnish Sweden with whatever food supplies are withheld by the United States.

Argentina, in handing the German minister his passports, records another triumph for Prussian diplomacy.

Has anybody heard that Petrograd, nee St. Petersburg, having divorced the czar, is considering resuming her maiden name.

The lord chief justice of England got a warmer welcome in America than is usually extended to a visitor bent on making a "touch."

Persons who allow themselves to be walked on may eventually come to like it, as in the case of those Germans who dote on their militaristic junkers.

Reports of life in the national army cantonments make even the skeptical believe the draft is the best thing that could have happened at this time.

The longer bread stays high, the more housekeepers will learn to bake their own bread, which is one of the sweet uses of this particular adversity.

Speaking of conscientious objectors, what show is there for a person who conscientiously objects to having the bacon and eggs cut out of his breakfast bill of fare?

What Russia needs now is a benevolent and patriotic dictator who will not hesitate to stand traitors and potential traitors against some convenient wall and shoot them.

Why should the Moslems in Russia object to fighting their co-religionists? Their co-religionists don't object to fighting them and we Christians just revel in swatting one another.

STANDING BEHIND OUR SOLDIERS

You are undertaking a great duty. The heart of the whole country is with you. Everything that you do will be watched with the deepest interest and with the deepest solicitude not only by those who are near and dear to you but by the whole Nation besides. For this great war draws us all together.

—From President Wilson's address to the soldiers of the National army.

If the heart of the whole country is with our soldiers of the National Army, and it is believed that it is, the money of the Nation will be back of them. The Liberty Loan is to be used to arm, equip and maintain our soldiers, to prepare them for the conflict in France, and make them as effective and powerful as possible, and safeguard them in every way possible. In addition it will be used to give them life and indemnity insurance and provide for their dependents. The uses of the Liberty Loan appeal to every patriotic American, for it is used for our soldiers and sailors and the principles which they uphold, which the heart of the whole country is with.

THE MAYOR OF PORTLAND SAYS TO MAYOR OF NYSSA

Portland, Or., Oct. 10.—C. C. Wilson, Mayor, Nyssa, Or.—Dear Sir: During the week of October 22 every community in the State of Oregon is urged to organize and conduct some class of entertainment or method of raising money for the Oregon Boys Emergency Fund. This money will be placed in the hands of a general committee of responsible citizens, to be used in any and all emergencies for any one who has enlisted in our country's service from the State of Oregon.

A part of this fund will be given to the commanding officers of the various organizations from this state and the remainder will be held for future use, and will be of inestimable value to our boys particularly after they reach Europe.

The plan adopted in Portland is to conduct a series of entertainments every afternoon and evening during the week of October 22, at the Public Auditorium, featuring patriotic moving pictures and other specialties. This committee will sell 100,000 tickets at 25 cents each, there being practically no expense and the entire proceeds will be given to the Oregon Boys Emergency Fund.

I urge you to get in touch with the county judge in your county, also commissioners, school directors and active workers with a view of carrying out a program which will be workable in your community and urge them to immediate action.

Mr. Emery Olmstead, vice president of the Northwestern National bank, Portland, Or., is treasurer and custodian of this

The Song of the Owyhee

Dedicated to the Owyhee Irrigation Project.
(CONTRIBUTED)

MY CURRENT strongly flows, going seaward many years.

Fed by heavy mountain snows and Heaven's precious tears, The thirsty lands are calling, as my stream glides swiftly by.

But the waters, onward falling, pour through valleys hot and dry.

My song has but one measure, an anxious, bold refrain, I'll give my liquid treasure, for the deserts lack of rain.

"Build canals, Oh man,
I'll irrigate your lands,
My waters you can plan
To give verdure to the sands.
The soil is ripe with age,
You should not long delay.
I'll make the dusty sage
Bloom with rich alfalfa hay.

I've waited countless, experienced loss and gains, While the storm wind fiercely rages, throwing sand upon the plains.

The Indian fought his battle, the coyote found his prey, And herds of roaming cattle, tramped my banks for many a day.

Then the white man came to live, and the country richer grew,

I rejoiced that I might give to make great dreams come true.

"Build canals, Oh man,
I'll irrigate your lands,
My waters you can plan
To give verdure to the sands.
Oh, people strong with health,
It's the workers' call at morn,
I'll develop mighty wealth
In fields of waving corn."
