Linn county for 61 years, died at her home in Albany, aged 80 years.

Oregon was second among the states of the Union in the sale of treasury savings certificates for November.

Members of the Northwestern Society of Highway Engineers held their annual meeting in Salem Friday night.

Rev. Edward Wittins, a well known pioneer Methodist minister, died at the home of his daughter in Salem, aged 70 years.

The bond-issue providing $50,000 for water works and $20,000 for a city hall carried at Rainier by a vote of 135 to 32.

More than 800 applications for real estate licenses have been received at the office of the state insurance commissioner.

A total of $226,000.36 was paid into the state treasury as inheritance tax by the estate of the late Henry L. Pittock of Portland.

Fall wheat in the Weston vicinity is looking excellent and has not been damaged by the frost, according to reports from that section.

Nearly 100 Filipino students from Corvallis, Philomath and other sections of the state gathered at Salem and enjoyed the annual banquet.

Damaged trestles, due to high water, are responsible for the uncertain train service between The Dalles and Friend, on the Great Southern railroad.

Seventy breeders of purebred stock from all sections of Linn county met in Albany and formed the Linn County Purebred Livestock association.

December cargo shipments of lumber from the Columbia were exceptionally light. In that period 27 vessels loaded a total of 21,535,884 feet of lumber.

The total cash receipts of the Oregon supreme court for the year 1919 were $9160.98. During the year 1918 the court received from all sources $9322.

near Salem is to be taken up by the present grand jury because of many complaints that have been made regarding their management.

The building of the Warren Cooperative warehouse store at Warren is nearing completion, and will soon be ready for occupancy. The association will supply all its members with goods at cost prices.

ALIAS SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
STATE OF OREGON, FOR MALHEUR COUNTY.

WM. E. LEES, Plaintiff, vs.

R. W. A. SIMMONS and JANE DOE
SIMMONS, husband and wife; FRED G. CALDWELL and JANE DOE CALDWELL, husband and wife; and CHARLES S. STAFF-FORD, and JANE DOE STAFF-FORD, husband and wife,

Defendants.

To, R. W. A. Simmons, Jane Doe
Simmons, Fred G. Caldwell, Jane Doe Caldwell, Charles S. Stafford and Jane Doe Stafford, Defendants.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 6th day of February, 1920, the same being the last day prescribed by the order of the above entitled Court, directing service of summons in said suit to be made upon you by publication thereof; and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to wit: For a decree of this Court quieting his title to lots 23 to 30 inclusive in Block 2, Villa Park Addition to the City of Ontario, Malheur County, Oregon, and adjudging the plaintiff herein to be the sole legal and equitable owner of all of said lots and every part thereof and that the defendants nor either of them, have any interest, title or estate in or to said lots and land, or any part thereof and that the defendants be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any claim in or to said lots or any part thereof and for such other relief as may be just and equitable.

You are further notified that this summons is served upon you by publication thereof by virtue of an order of the Hon. Dalton Biggs, Judge of the above entitled Court, dated Dec.
20, 1919, and which order directs that this summons be published once each week for six consecutive weeks in the GATE CITY JOURNAL, a weekly newspaper of general circulation in Malheur County, Oregon, commencing with the issue of Dec.
26th, 1919, and completed by the issue of February 6, 1920.

WM. E. LEES,
Attorney for Plaintiff, Residing at Ontario, Oregon.
