HOUSE PASSES RAILROAD BILL

Washington.—The compromise Esch Cummins railroad bill was approved by the house, which adopted the conference report after four hours of debate. Adoption of the conference report came after the house had defeated, 28 to 171, a motion to recommit.

Chairman Esch of the interstate commerce committee then called for the previous question and there was a buzz in the chamber as the voting began.

There never was any doubt as to the outcome, leaders said, although the effect of pressure from labor leaders against adoption of the bill was variously interpreted.

During the debate, in which more than a score of representatives took part, Chairman Esch declared that the roads would be handed back to their owners on March 1, regardless of whether congress enacted legislation meanwhile, but he warned the house that defeat of the bill at this stage would put half the roads of the country in the hands of the receivers in three months.

The house adopted the conference report by a vote of 250 to 150—a clean margin of 100 votes.

The vote for the adoption of the conference report showed 205 republicans and 45 democrats supporting it. The opposing vote included 125 democrats, 23 republicans, one independent and one prohibitionist.

TOP LOSS OF IRRIGATION WATER --Use American Quality Wood Pipe

Irrigation water is wasted, burned-up crops will result when the hot, dry weather sets in. Much of the annual waste is a grand medicine for the water is due to evaporation and seepage from open ditch-cuts.

When wood pipe is used, waste is reduced to the minimum because the flow of water through the pipe prevents evaporation and seepage is almost impossible. Pipe does not take up as much space as ditches, and flumes and more land can be devoted to cultivation.

Wood pipe is less expensive and more durable than iron pipe. The interior surface will not become rough with age and it offers less resistance to the flow of water.

Our American Quality wood pipe is ideal for irrigation purposes. It is made of best grade Washington yellow fir, has high tensile strength and because the wood is hard it prevents compression of the steel bands into the staves.

Ask the manager of any Boise Payette yard about American Quality wood pipe. He will be glad to give you full information and will assure you prompt service.
