

It Doesn't Fight With Your Taste

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

Probably you have set out to buy a suit many times with nothing definite in mind--and later found out what you were really looking for was something distinctive. We have a russet mixture in Cassimere that is a perfect blend of all the soft tones. Made in a "snappy" young men's model it certainly is a distinctive garment.

TOGGERY BILL

ONTARIO "Good Clothes for Men" OREGON

Japan Will Give Korea Legislature.
Honolulu.—As a preliminary step toward granting Korea self-government and the right to elect representatives to the Japanese diet, the Japanese government has decided to create legislative assemblies in the Korean province to which only Koreans can be elected, according to a Tokio cable received here.

Allied Nations Masters, States Foch.
Paris.—Allied nations are masters of the situation in the near east as elsewhere, and, if in complete harmony, can employ all the forces at their disposal to carry out their policies which are "soberly proportioned to their interests," said Marshal Foch in an interview.

Baker Heads Water Power Board.
Washington.—Secretary Baker was named by President Wilson to be chairman of the board provided for in the water power bill to carry out the provisions of that measure. Secretaries Meredith and Payne were named at the same time to be members of the board.

Women in Democratic Convention.
San Francisco.—An examination of the temporary roll shows 308 women delegates and alternates in the democratic national convention. They will be divided as follows: At large, 41; alternates at large, 39; district delegates, 63; district alternates, 165.

Straight talk on Cream Separators by Nyssa Trading Co.
Nyssa, Ore.

WE will gladly take a new DeLaval Cream Separator out to your place, set it up, and show you how simple it is to operate and care for.

It will prove by its performance that it skims clean even under unfavorable conditions; that it is easy to turn and easy to clean.

It will also demonstrate that it pays for itself in less than a year because of the cream it saves—to say nothing of the labor and time it saves.

If this demonstration is desired stop in next time you are in town or send us a letter or call us up on the telephone

Sooner or later you will buy a

DE LAVAL

OWYHEE

By Our Regular Correspondent

Marion Wilson was a business visitor to Ontario Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schweizer and daughter Della are visiting Mrs. Ruth Share of Caldwell.

Frank Carmen and George Clauson, carpenters of Nyssa, commenced work on a new house for the Klingback's Monday. Mr. Klingback has the cement basement already completed.

The teachers for Owyhee school have been engaged. They are Mrs. Chas. Schweizer who will have charge of the four upper grades, and Mrs. Fruter of Vale, will have the four lower grades.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hite and children visited at the Bigelow home Sunday.

Thelma, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Glascock was quite ill last week but is now some better.

Mrs. Chas. Buddey and Miss Marian Lowe attended the home-demonstration for the making of dress forms at Nyssa Monday and expressed themselves as well pleased with what they learned.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Pullen and son Noble were business visitors to Ontario Monday. Noble, whose motor cycle was in the garage there, sold it, as he had no further use for it, at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klingback and children, Kenneth and Doris; Joe Mendolia, Louis, Hugh, Elmer and Clarence DeBord were dinner guests at the DeBord home Sunday. A two gallon freezer of ice-cream was contributed by the Klingbacks and was much appreciated by the assembled company.

Noble Pullen left Ontario Tuesday evening for Pasadena, Calif., where he will attend the Pasadena University.

Three farms in the community are producing large hay crops that have never been considered hay farms before, having just been put into alfalfa in the last year or two. They are the Biggs-Dunaway ranch, Andrew Ward's and Clarence McConnell's.

Al Green's threshing machine is in the country prepared to thresh out Owyhee's grain.

Miss Chrystal West, who has been employed by the Photo Supply Company in Portland, returned to Owyhee Tuesday for a short visit with her parents after which she will go to Twin Falls, where she has accepted a position as teacher of English in the High School there this year.

Quick action with a pail of water by F. L. DeBord averted what might have been a serious conflagration at the DeBord home Monday night.

Misses Marion Lowe and Ruby Bradley visited Mrs. Julien Hurley in Vale Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newbill and Chas. Newbill, Sr., visited at the George Glascock home Saturday. Emma and Viola Glascock went home with them for short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and family, who have been living on the Ray Cantrell ranch where Mr. Jones has been employed, left Monday for Mitchell, Oregon, Mr. Jones' boyhood home.

F. Robinson, who has been visiting at the Bradley ranch, left Wednesday with his household effects, for Portland, reOgon.

Mrs. F. L. DeBord and children drove over to the Bend Tuesday, where they attended the dress form building demonstration at the Bert Roberts home. The process was interesting to observe, the form being made of a close fitted body lining, worn by the lady desiring a dress-form, who must stand quietly while the form builders rub plaster paris—several coats of it—on the lining. The plaster hardens after which the form is removed and stuffed tightly with excelsior, the shape and size of the body.

Mrs. D. P. Pullen was ill the first of the week but is now recovered. Louis and Elmer DeBord left Wednesday for Ironside.

John Bigelow and Mrs. Nettie McNeel, of Nyssa, visited at the S. S. Bigelow home Wednesday.
