NYSSA SCHOOL NOTES

The High School Football team lost in their game with the Intermountain Institute at Weiser. The boys played good football after they got warmed up.

The Junior Class organized Monday and elected the following officers: President, Clyde Beam; Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Barrett.

The well developed child is the most valuable possession of the race.

Adenoids dull the mind because they injure the brain cells. The vacant, stupid expression of the adolescent face is due to the weakening effect on the nerve cells of the brain. In one instance a primary school child had spent a whole year in school without learning the alphabet. An operation removed the adenoids and the alphabet was learned in a week.

CLASS ORGANIZATIONS

"Richard," asked the teacher, suddenly, "have you learned your history lesson?" "No'm," answered the idle boy, slowly. "I ain't had no time for nothin' but my grammar lesson yet."

English School Boy Howlers
After twice committing suicide, Cowper lived till 1800, when he died a natural death.

Much butter is imported from Denmark because the Danish cows have a greater enterprise and superior technical education to ours.

The courage of the Turks is explained by the fact that a man with several wives is more willing to face death than if he had only one.

"Every once in a while we are reminded of the fact that we have been fooling ourselves about our American public school system. We have been telling ourselves in orations and political speeches for generations all about the perfection of the system of universal free education. And then we run up against the hard fact that it is neither universal nor free. Because of the cost, we neglect to make the system efficient or universal.

"Good schools cost money. Rather a playground without school than a school without a playground. Everything we have we must leave to our children or to the children of other people. Why not leave it to them in the form of education and training?"

OWYHEE

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bradley and family attended the play at the Christian church in Vale last week. It was entitled "The Royal House of Israel and King David's Court." They expressed themselves as well pleased with the play.
