KINGMAN KOLONY

Miss Ella Vanderpool passed away at the city hospital at Ontario Wednesday morning after a brief illness.

Mrs. Vanderpool was Miss Ella Bullard. She was born in 1896 at Vale, Oregon. She married Mr. John Vanderpool October 25, 1915, and has lived in the Kolony for the past five years. She leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bullard, and four brothers and sisters at Arcadia beneath heart trouble, passed away peacefully.

The Kolony is very sad because of their loss. Mrs. Vanderpool is known for her good deeds and is loved by all.

Mr. Longworth of Salt Lake City, representing the railroad, Mr. Kedzie representing the Washington engineers met at Adian today to try to reach a settlement about the broken tile, which costs about $1500.

Mr. W. Cunningham of Baar & Cunningham, consulting engineers, returned Tuesday for Portland after being about ten days in this vicinity.

Mr. Smith cut his knee severely Saturday. He went immediately to hospital to consult a doctor.

Mr. T. Morgan has sold his hay to Mr. Connelly. Mr. Morgan will have sheds built.

Mr. Kelly is baling his hay to ship to Vale.

William Schultz shipped a carload of hay from Adian to the Portland market Friday.

Gay McGee, who is the new general superintendent for Puckett & Hunt, accompanied Mr. Puckett on two trips from Boise this week.

Mrs. Fred Powell is ill this week. Miss Ethel Shaeffer and Miss Thelma McCreary are home from the International Institute at Wellesley for the Christmas holidays.

The ladies of the Sunday school met at Mrs. Martin's Wednesday afternoon to make fudge for the Christmas treat after the school program Christmas Eve.

It will be of interest to the many friends of Mr. von Readen, who formerly lived on the Boulevard, to know that he is recovering at his home in Portland after a recent operation for appendicitis.

Hot lunch was served at school Monday for the first time. A system is to be instigated which will simplify the work and not throw all the responsibility upon one person. Miss Neeb was appointed chairman of the work committee and she will be assisted by two high school girls. When supplies are needed Miss Neeb will report to Mrs. Pritchett, chairman of the soliciting committee.

Birthday Surprise Party

Miss Cheryl Green was the recipient of a birthday surprise party at her home on Saturday evening, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday anniversary. Games were played and refreshments served. Those present were:

Merrile Fields, Viola, Ernest, Geo. and Charley McCurdy, Earl Davis, Bert and Paul Davis, Ruth Servoss, James Duncan, Clyde Beam, Lloyd Hoxie, Edna Dennis, Carl Schwelzer, Frank and Ralph Reberger, Blossom Anderson, Annette, Lawrence and Warren Blodgett, Edith and Leonora Robeson, Jennie Newby, Charlotte Huffman, Wm. McDonald, James Huffman, Cora Davis, Goldie and Frankie Leuck and Cheryl Green.

Bob Newby Injured

Bob Newby met with an accident Wednesday by which he narrowly escaped sustaining a broken jaw and the loss of several perfectly good teeth. He was cranking up the engine which operates the trencher out on the Kingman Kolony drainage ditch and the oratory caitter "kicked back," the handle striking him in the jaw just forward of the cheek bone. Bob took a header up into the air and came down on the back of his head and saw a great number of stars that he had never seen before. The handle bar inflicted a severe flesh wound and loosened several teeth but no bones were broken, and Bob came home to recuperate.

Tracing Missing Man

Sheriff Noe was in Nyssa from Vale Tuesday to gather evidence regarding Jerry Hurley, who left Nyssa last spring for Grangeville, where he had charge of teams on grading work being done there. He is reported to have left there in July for Nyssa, with a sum of money on his person amounting to $1000, and it is feared he has met with foul play. Nothing has been heard of him since that time and his Nyssa friends have no knowledge of his whereabouts. Mr. Hurley has large property holdings near Nyssa.

Giving Her Fair Warning

John had just been reprimanded by his mother for something he had done, when he went into the bedroom where his new little baby sister was lying in her crib. His mother overheard him say: "Sister, you ought to go back where you came from; you can't do anything you want to do here."

We are in the market for baled timothy hay, feed oats and potatoes. Must be good quality and prices right. Only products that will pass inspection at time of delivery will be accepted. Mail quotations to Eastern Oregon Lumber Company, Enterprise, Oregon.

Chas. Crawford motored to Boise Thursday.

Isham Anderson was a business visitor to Ontario Thursday.

Ralph Greenough of Vale visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Willson, of the Chili Cafe Thursday.

Violet Cox is home for the holidays from Baker City, where she is attending the St. Francis academy.

Ves Goshert and Will Cathey, two prominent Nyssaites, were business visitors to Caldwell Thursday.

Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Carter are home for the holidays from Boise, where they are attending college.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pinkston spent several days this week with relatives on the Owyhee and report a splendid time.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Willson went to Boise Wednesday to spend Christmas with Mrs. Willson's mother Mrs. L. Grimes.

Seymour Ross and family of near Ontario are scheduled to take Christmas dinner tomorrow at the Tom Coward home.

Donald, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clive Williams, has been very ill, but is reported to be much better at present.

The Chipman divorce case came up for trial this week but was postponed until January 3 to allow the plaintiff to secure witnesses.

Bob Elliott came home Thursday evening from Mountain Home, Idaho, where he is employed, to spend the holidays with his family.

"Red" Johnston, who is in charge of a couple of bands of woolies a few miles back on the hills, was in Nyssa yesterday to see about securing feed for his flocks.

Osa Storts is home from Mt. Angel, near Portland to spend the Christmas season. Osa is attending school there and has just recovered from a broken foot received in a football game.

Miss Marion Lowe came home Wednesday from Walla Walla, Wash., where she is a student at Whitman college, to spend the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lowe.

Jack McDonald came home this week from Corvallis where he is attending O. A. C. He is taking advantage of educational privileges granted by the government to soldiers of the late war.

Nyssa hunters are creating considerable havoc among the wild geese of the neighborhood. F. L. Young was out one day this week and secured three and Artie Robertson brought in two Thursday.

The people living along the road from here to the Idanha orchard evidently believe in the old adage that the Lord helps those who help themselves for they have been doing some community road work and report a fine graveled highway as far as the orchard.

Rescoe Shelton was in Nyssa this week from his homestead on Burnt river, where he is spending the winter. He has a choice 20-acre tract adjoining town upon which he raised a bumper crop of barley this summer and was down with a view of disposing of the crop, but found no market for it.

Charley Spinner was in town from Boise this week shaking hands with his many friends. Charley was at one time chairman of the Nyssa Purity League, which enjoyed such wide popularity a few years ago. Owing to the fact that prohibition is now in effect and Marshal Reberger sitting on the lid his visit was celebrated by opening a few bottles of soda pop.

Santa Claus paid his annual visit to the Methodist church Thursday evening, where he was accorded an enthusiastic welcome by the little folks. The old saint was in his usual happy mood and dispensed his presents with a lavish hand, and completely won the hearts of his little friends. An interesting program was given in connection with the other features of the evening.

The city street work has been completed for this season. First street from the Wilson ditch south to the Gem State Lumber yard and Main street west to the school house, as well as a number of intersecting streets, have been covered with fine gravel and when packed will be equal to a macadized road. The council has done a good job and can retire with the consciousness of duty well done.

THOMPSON-PRICE

A quiet wedding which was solemnized at Boise, was that of Miss Della Ethel Thompson to Perry F. Price, which took place at the Christian parsonage on last Thursday at high noon.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles W. Dean and was witnessed by immediate relatives of the bride.

The bride wore an extremely smart and beautiful frock of navy blue tricotine, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Following the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served at the Owyhee. The table was decorated in lovely red and white roses.

The bride is well known here, having been employed as bookkeeper at the Nyssa Trading Company store for several months.

She is one of our fairest and most "Prim's," given by the Choral club of youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson of this place, and Mr. Price is the second son of Mrs. Dr. J. T. Price of Nez Perce, Idaho, and is a well known and popular young man of that place.

After March 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Price will be at home to their friends at their fine farm home at Nez Perce.

THE CANTATA

The Cantata, "Santa Claus at Miss Prim's," given by the Choral Club of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening was an unusual success. The young people have been working faithfully under Prof. C. W. Albertson, Mrs. Dick Tensen, Mrs. C. C. Hunt and Mrs. W. F. Shields. The leadership and the willingness of the young people to work with good cheer made possible an evening of great pleasure for themselves and for all who heard them. The class choruses, dialogues and every feature of the play were all to be generously commended. The sewing girls, canned goods boys, baseball boys and Santa took their parts well.

The young people of the Christian Endeavor society are going on with their work and soon will give a concert for the public. A work of this kind on the part of our young people deserves and should receive every encouragement from all the people. We shall look forward with glad expectancy to their next program.

ARCADIA

From our regular correspondent

The school board was fortunate in securing F. A. Gallegly and Mrs. Clara Thompson to fill the vacancy left by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davis. Both children and parents were sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Davis, as they were splendid teachers, but Mr. Gallegly and Mrs. Thompson both come highly recommended and every one is sure to like them.

The small baby girl of Nick Smith who has been very bad with whooping cough, is some better at this time.

Lee and Harold, the small sons of Ira Dall, are on the sick list again. Mrs. C. W. Barrett was calling on Mrs. Quinta and Mrs. Wolf Sunday afternoon.

Kenneth, the small son of John Vanderpool of the Owyhee neighborhood, is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bourard, while his mother is sick in the hospital at Ontario.

C. W. Barrett went to Nampa Monday on business.

Bertha Dell was visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson, Sunday. Charlie Gossett and Elbert Butler, Sr., attended the sale at Nyssa Saturday.

Chapeter Lackey has sold his hay to a Mr. Harvey of Boise for $8 per ton. He will feed it at the Butler feed yard.

Bill Lucas and family, who have lived at Arcadia and Nyssa for the past four years, contemplate moving to Oklahoma some time in the near future to make their home. His son-in-law, Ralph Fleming, and wife will possibly accompany them.

J. A. Wallace, who has been working for Chester Lackey for the past two years, left Wednesday for Utah, where he will spend the winter with relatives.

Frank Edwards went to Apple Valley Monday and bought a team of mules and paid $300 for them.

A. E. Thent, who has been in Salt Lake City for the past six years, is sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Barrett.
